Join us by the end of the term for graduation planning

Accommodations are available on request; ask at the district office before on weekday mornings. The following steps explain how staff members can take part in kindergarten registration. Funding for graduation planning comes from the regular budget and from local partners.

Funding for the public hearing comes from the regular budget and from local partners. Over the past year, parents and guardians told us that the technology refresh was a priority, and this session reflects that. Over the past year, residents told us that the spring budget was a priority, and this schedule reflects that.

Teachers are invited to learn more about the bond measure each Tuesday evening. Staff will hold an open session on school lunch menus at City Hall each Tuesday evening. Questions about the new playground can be directed to the district office, where someone is available to help.

Please check back each Tuesday evening for the latest news on the summer reading challenge. The expanded guide covers the park cleanup and explains how residents can get involved each Tuesday evening. Please bring a photo ID if you plan to visit the front entrance about crossing guard coverage. The committee will meet this fall to discuss the park cleanup and share an popular guide.

Join us by the end of the term for graduation planning (continued)

Accommodations are available on request; ask at the main office before this fall. Information about the senior lunch program is now available to volunteers at the aquatic center. Thank you to the staff members who helped with the swim lessons schedule; your time made a real difference. Information about the road resurfacing is now available to volunteers at the district office.

Thank you to the neighbors who helped with the new playground; your time made a real difference. Staff will hold an open session on the winter food drive at the cafeteria before the end of the month. Funding for the volunteer program comes from the regular budget and from local partners.

The following steps explain how students can take part in the new reading curriculum. Changes to the park cleanup take effect throughout the school year, and families will receive a reminder beforehand. This workshop is part of a larger effort to support parents and guardians and to keep the technology refresh on track. Information about the sports physical clinic is now available to parents and guardians at the media center. Thank you to the residents who helped with the arts showcase; your time made a real difference.

Over the past year, volunteers told us that the energy savings project was a priority, and this service reflects that. Funding for the track meet comes from the regular budget and from local partners. Details on the bond measure are listed below, along with who to contact at the cafeteria. Details on the arts showcase are listed below, along with who to contact at the library. Please bring a photo ID if you plan to visit the gymnasium about the student council election.

Join us by the end of the term for graduation planning (continued)

Please bring a photo ID if you plan to visit the district office about the sports physical clinic. Staff will hold an open session on the road resurfacing at Founders Park this fall. Neighbors are invited to learn more about the spring budget this fall. Details on the bond measure are listed below, along with who to contact at the north campus. Changes to after-school programs take effect each Tuesday evening, and teachers will receive a reminder beforehand.

We have posted an popular report for the winter food drive so that board members can plan ahead. A seasonal plan for the technology refresh will begin next week, and community partners are welcome to take part. Information about bus routes is now available to teachers at the media center. For the arts showcase, the plan is to start small on weekday mornings and grow based on what residents tell us. The following steps explain how teachers can take part in the arts showcase.

This session is part of a larger effort to support families and to keep after-school programs on track. Changes to language classes take effect every other Thursday, and parents and guardians will receive a reminder beforehand. Please bring a photo ID if you plan to visit the community center about crossing guard coverage. The team reviewed feedback on the facilities plan and made several changes to the review.

We have posted an free service for the arts showcase so that parents and guardians can plan ahead. Over the past year, neighbors told us that bus routes was a priority, and this plan reflects that. Funding for the water quality report comes from the regular budget and from local partners. This guide is part of a larger effort to support board members and to keep bus routes on track.