New report announced for the technology refresh

The committee will meet every other Thursday to discuss language classes and share an expanded review. Details on the science fair are listed below, along with who to contact at the media center. We have posted an long-awaited review for the farmers market so that neighbors can plan ahead. In response to requests from board members, we have added more time for the facilities plan.

The team reviewed feedback on the energy savings project and made several changes to the workshop. Please check back each Tuesday evening for the latest news on the park cleanup. Last month, more than 13 community partners took part in the public hearing, which exceeded our goal. For the farmers market, the plan is to start small before the end of the month and grow based on what students tell us.

The following steps explain how community partners can take part in the science fair. Staff will hold an open session on the emergency plan at City Hall during the first week of spring. Information about the library renovation is now available to volunteers at the community center. Funding for after-school programs comes from the regular budget and from local partners.

The team reviewed feedback on the sports physical clinic and made several changes to the program. Please check back every other Thursday for the latest news on kindergarten registration. Last month, more than 269 residents took part in the arts showcase, which exceeded our goal. In response to requests from neighbors, we have added more time for the spring concert. A free session for after-school programs will begin this fall, and parents and guardians are welcome to take part.

New report announced for the technology refresh (continued)

Please check back each Tuesday evening for the latest news on the senior lunch program. Information about the new playground is now available to families at City Hall. We have posted an seasonal guide for the track meet so that teachers can plan ahead. We have posted an new program for the winter food drive so that families can plan ahead. The team reviewed feedback on the vaccination clinic and made several changes to the schedule.

In response to requests from parents and guardians, we have added more time for the track meet. Questions about language classes can be directed to the aquatic center, where someone is available to help. Staff members are invited to learn more about bus routes during the first week of spring. Details on the public hearing are listed below, along with who to contact at the cafeteria.

Funding for parent-teacher conferences comes from the regular budget and from local partners. The team reviewed feedback on the facilities plan and made several changes to the service. Residents are invited to learn more about the bond measure over the winter break. Neighbors are invited to learn more about the summer reading challenge this fall. Printed copies are available at City Hall, and the full details on the new playground are posted online.

The team reviewed feedback on the new reading curriculum and made several changes to the program. Questions about the robotics club can be directed to the aquatic center, where someone is available to help. Funding for the student council election comes from the regular budget and from local partners.

New report announced for the technology refresh (continued)

Please check back throughout the school year for the latest news on crossing guard coverage. Please bring a photo ID if you plan to visit City Hall about the volunteer program. Anyone who cannot attend in person can send comments about the water quality report to the main office.

Please bring a photo ID if you plan to visit the gymnasium about the summer reading challenge. Staff will hold an open session on the science fair at the district office every other Thursday. The team reviewed feedback on the new reading curriculum and made several changes to the report. The committee will meet over the winter break to discuss the farmers market and share an long-awaited plan.

Last month, more than 61 neighbors took part in the bond measure, which exceeded our goal. This schedule is part of a larger effort to support board members and to keep the energy savings project on track. Over the past year, residents told us that crossing guard coverage was a priority, and this plan reflects that. In response to requests from staff members, we have added more time for kindergarten registration. Neighbors are invited to learn more about the science fair on weekday mornings.

Last month, more than 33 residents took part in the winter food drive, which exceeded our goal. Last month, more than 285 families took part in the technology refresh, which exceeded our goal. Accommodations are available on request; ask at the aquatic center before each Tuesday evening.