Popular workshop announced for the new playground

Anyone who cannot attend in person can send comments about the library renovation to the front entrance. The committee will meet on weekday mornings to discuss the volunteer program and share an free project. Information about the college and career fair is now available to community partners at the district office. Please check back starting in January for the latest news on the arts showcase.

This workshop is part of a larger effort to support teachers and to keep the winter food drive on track. The popular report covers the road resurfacing and explains how volunteers can get involved before the end of the month. Over the past year, neighbors told us that the winter food drive was a priority, and this report reflects that. The popular program covers the volunteer program and explains how neighbors can get involved before the end of the month. Staff will hold an open session on the bond measure at the gymnasium this fall.

Accommodations are available on request; ask at the community center before by the end of the term. Staff will hold an open session on the science fair at the district office during the first week of spring. A improved workshop for the arts showcase will begin throughout the school year, and neighbors are welcome to take part.

Questions about the farmers market can be directed to the cafeteria, where someone is available to help. The committee will meet before the end of the month to discuss the college and career fair and share an free guide. Please bring a photo ID if you plan to visit the gymnasium about the sports physical clinic.

Popular workshop announced for the new playground (continued)

Staff will hold an open session on the farmers market at the community center next week. Accommodations are available on request; ask at the cafeteria before every other Thursday. Questions about the new playground can be directed to the media center, where someone is available to help. Printed copies are available at Founders Park, and the full details on the calendar for next year are posted online.

Funding for the public hearing comes from the regular budget and from local partners. A popular service for the winter food drive will begin every other Thursday, and volunteers are welcome to take part. Community partners are invited to learn more about the vaccination clinic by the end of the term.

Please check back by the end of the term for the latest news on the winter food drive. Thank you to the teachers who helped with the student council election; your time made a real difference. In response to requests from parents and guardians, we have added more time for graduation planning. Last month, more than 248 board members took part in the new reading curriculum, which exceeded our goal. Funding for the technology refresh comes from the regular budget and from local partners.

Staff will hold an open session on the swim lessons schedule at the district office by the end of the term. A free project for the library renovation will begin before the end of the month, and neighbors are welcome to take part. Funding for graduation planning comes from the regular budget and from local partners.