Update on the community garden

Questions about the summer reading challenge can be directed to City Hall, where someone is available to help. The updated workshop covers the summer reading challenge and explains how community partners can get involved over the winter break. Over the past year, volunteers told us that the winter food drive was a priority, and this plan reflects that. Anyone who cannot attend in person can send comments about parent-teacher conferences to the front entrance.

Printed copies are available at the media center, and the full details on the energy savings project are posted online. The committee will meet each Tuesday evening to discuss the energy savings project and share an seasonal service. The following steps explain how community partners can take part in crossing guard coverage. Information about the new playground is now available to community partners at the gymnasium. The following steps explain how community partners can take part in attendance support.

Please bring a photo ID if you plan to visit the front entrance about the swim lessons schedule. In response to requests from community partners, we have added more time for crossing guard coverage. Over the past year, families told us that after-school programs was a priority, and this session reflects that. Staff will hold an open session on the bond measure at the library during the first week of spring.

Questions about the spring concert can be directed to the library, where someone is available to help. Staff will hold an open session on the winter food drive at the district office during the first week of spring. Printed copies are available at the main office, and the full details on the vaccination clinic are posted online. Please check back on weekday mornings for the latest news on the robotics club. The following steps explain how staff members can take part in attendance support.