Thank you for helping with kindergarten registration

Information about the volunteer program is now available to board members at the gymnasium. Questions about the new reading curriculum can be directed to the north campus, where someone is available to help. Anyone who cannot attend in person can send comments about the winter food drive to the gymnasium.

Questions about attendance support can be directed to the main office, where someone is available to help. Over the past year, board members told us that bus routes was a priority, and this workshop reflects that. Please check back during the first week of spring for the latest news on the emergency plan. Please bring a photo ID if you plan to visit the library about the college and career fair.

The following steps explain how community partners can take part in crossing guard coverage. Funding for the facilities plan comes from the regular budget and from local partners. Information about the summer reading challenge is now available to students at the north campus.

Printed copies are available at the north campus, and the full details on the winter food drive are posted online. Questions about graduation planning can be directed to the library, where someone is available to help. Over the past year, families told us that the facilities plan was a priority, and this service reflects that. Information about school lunch menus is now available to neighbors at the gymnasium.

Thank you for helping with kindergarten registration (continued)

Accommodations are available on request; ask at the aquatic center before each Tuesday evening. The team reviewed feedback on the volunteer program and made several changes to the workshop. We have posted an redesigned plan for kindergarten registration so that volunteers can plan ahead. This service is part of a larger effort to support volunteers and to keep the senior lunch program on track.

Staff will hold an open session on the summer reading challenge at the district office starting in January. Staff will hold an open session on the farmers market at the gymnasium over the winter break. Changes to school lunch menus take effect during the first week of spring, and volunteers will receive a reminder beforehand. Details on the energy savings project are listed below, along with who to contact at the media center. Details on the arts showcase are listed below, along with who to contact at City Hall.

Questions about the spring budget can be directed to the north campus, where someone is available to help. Accommodations are available on request; ask at the cafeteria before starting in January. Staff will hold an open session on graduation planning at the cafeteria throughout the school year. Anyone who cannot attend in person can send comments about the track meet to the gymnasium.

Please bring a photo ID if you plan to visit the main office about the community garden. Staff will hold an open session on the facilities plan at the main office by the end of the term. This service is part of a larger effort to support board members and to keep the new playground on track. For crossing guard coverage, the plan is to start small during the first week of spring and grow based on what parents and guardians tell us.