Thank you for helping with the facilities plan

This program is part of a larger effort to support community partners and to keep crossing guard coverage on track. This review is part of a larger effort to support staff members and to keep school lunch menus on track. We have posted an new review for parent-teacher conferences so that residents can plan ahead. Questions about parent-teacher conferences can be directed to the main office, where someone is available to help. Questions about graduation planning can be directed to the front entrance, where someone is available to help.

For the winter food drive, the plan is to start small on weekday mornings and grow based on what volunteers tell us. Details on the public hearing are listed below, along with who to contact at Founders Park. The committee will meet before the end of the month to discuss the road resurfacing and share an popular schedule.

Questions about safety drills can be directed to the library, where someone is available to help. Last month, more than 468 residents took part in after-school programs, which exceeded our goal. Funding for the summer reading challenge comes from the regular budget and from local partners. A popular workshop for graduation planning will begin each Tuesday evening, and residents are welcome to take part.

This review is part of a larger effort to support board members and to keep the calendar for next year on track. Please bring a photo ID if you plan to visit Founders Park about the track meet. Funding for the new playground comes from the regular budget and from local partners.

Thank you for helping with the facilities plan (continued)

Please check back this fall for the latest news on the water quality report. Questions about the energy savings project can be directed to City Hall, where someone is available to help. Thank you to the neighbors who helped with the senior lunch program; your time made a real difference. We have posted an improved program for the track meet so that staff members can plan ahead.

For the road resurfacing, the plan is to start small before the end of the month and grow based on what parents and guardians tell us. Funding for the road resurfacing comes from the regular budget and from local partners. For the robotics club, the plan is to start small this fall and grow based on what staff members tell us. Anyone who cannot attend in person can send comments about the swim lessons schedule to the north campus.

Accommodations are available on request; ask at the gymnasium before each Tuesday evening. Please bring a photo ID if you plan to visit the front entrance about the library renovation. Details on the park cleanup are listed below, along with who to contact at City Hall.

Staff will hold an open session on language classes at the library throughout the school year. Anyone who cannot attend in person can send comments about the track meet to the library. For the swim lessons schedule, the plan is to start small during the first week of spring and grow based on what residents tell us. Last month, more than 352 community partners took part in safety drills, which exceeded our goal. Last month, more than 338 neighbors took part in the student council election, which exceeded our goal.