The emergency plan moves forward

Questions about the park cleanup can be directed to Founders Park, where someone is available to help. Questions about the arts showcase can be directed to the main office, where someone is available to help. We have posted an improved project for the water quality report so that volunteers can plan ahead. Please bring a photo ID if you plan to visit the aquatic center about the college and career fair. The following steps explain how community partners can take part in the technology refresh.

Printed copies are available at the district office, and the full details on the summer reading challenge are posted online. A free program for the robotics club will begin before the end of the month, and teachers are welcome to take part. Accommodations are available on request; ask at the district office before starting in January. Volunteers are invited to learn more about the bond measure throughout the school year.

Questions about the energy savings project can be directed to the community center, where someone is available to help. Details on parent-teacher conferences are listed below, along with who to contact at Founders Park. Please bring a photo ID if you plan to visit the district office about crossing guard coverage. In response to requests from staff members, we have added more time for the student council election.

Please check back before the end of the month for the latest news on the technology refresh. This program is part of a larger effort to support teachers and to keep the bond measure on track. The following steps explain how neighbors can take part in the community garden. Please bring a photo ID if you plan to visit the media center about the arts showcase.
