The facilities plan moves forward

Changes to the track meet take effect each Tuesday evening, and parents and guardians will receive a reminder beforehand. Staff will hold an open session on the facilities plan at the media center throughout the school year. A new workshop for the senior lunch program will begin over the winter break, and board members are welcome to take part.

For the track meet, the plan is to start small every other Thursday and grow based on what teachers tell us. The team reviewed feedback on the emergency plan and made several changes to the guide. In response to requests from families, we have added more time for the vaccination clinic.

The team reviewed feedback on the winter food drive and made several changes to the project. Questions about the spring concert can be directed to the front entrance, where someone is available to help. This plan is part of a larger effort to support parents and guardians and to keep graduation planning on track. In response to requests from teachers, we have added more time for the public hearing.

Information about the sports physical clinic is now available to families at the aquatic center. Thank you to the board members who helped with after-school programs; your time made a real difference. The following steps explain how residents can take part in the library renovation.

The facilities plan moves forward (continued)

The expanded session covers graduation planning and explains how residents can get involved on weekday mornings. Over the past year, parents and guardians told us that school lunch menus was a priority, and this program reflects that. A expanded workshop for the bond measure will begin by the end of the term, and parents and guardians are welcome to take part. Staff will hold an open session on the bond measure at the cafeteria by the end of the term.

A improved report for the new reading curriculum will begin on weekday mornings, and families are welcome to take part. This plan is part of a larger effort to support teachers and to keep the emergency plan on track. Funding for the robotics club comes from the regular budget and from local partners.

Thank you to the parents and guardians who helped with the new reading curriculum; your time made a real difference. In response to requests from residents, we have added more time for the college and career fair. Thank you to the students who helped with the library renovation; your time made a real difference.

The new schedule covers the technology refresh and explains how residents can get involved next week. We have posted an seasonal program for the winter food drive so that volunteers can plan ahead. Over the past year, residents told us that bus routes was a priority, and this workshop reflects that. The following steps explain how community partners can take part in the library renovation. For the winter food drive, the plan is to start small throughout the school year and grow based on what teachers tell us.

The facilities plan moves forward (continued)

We have posted an volunteer-led session for the science fair so that staff members can plan ahead. In response to requests from parents and guardians, we have added more time for the sports physical clinic. Details on the spring budget are listed below, along with who to contact at the cafeteria. Questions about the park cleanup can be directed to the gymnasium, where someone is available to help.

Over the past year, volunteers told us that language classes was a priority, and this schedule reflects that. Teachers are invited to learn more about safety drills this fall. Please bring a photo ID if you plan to visit the gymnasium about kindergarten registration. Changes to the park cleanup take effect every other Thursday, and families will receive a reminder beforehand.

Please bring a photo ID if you plan to visit the cafeteria about bus routes. For parent-teacher conferences, the plan is to start small every other Thursday and grow based on what neighbors tell us. Accommodations are available on request; ask at the cafeteria before next week.

Questions about language classes can be directed to the front entrance, where someone is available to help. For kindergarten registration, the plan is to start small every other Thursday and grow based on what neighbors tell us. The team reviewed feedback on the technology refresh and made several changes to the review.