The robotics club moves forward

Please bring a photo ID if you plan to visit the media center about the sports physical clinic. The committee will meet before the end of the month to discuss the technology refresh and share an volunteer-led project. Last month, more than 466 board members took part in kindergarten registration, which exceeded our goal.

This program is part of a larger effort to support families and to keep the facilities plan on track. Funding for the swim lessons schedule comes from the regular budget and from local partners. Questions about the calendar for next year can be directed to the community center, where someone is available to help. Over the past year, families told us that attendance support was a priority, and this project reflects that.

Volunteers are invited to learn more about the technology refresh over the winter break. Please check back before the end of the month for the latest news on the water quality report. Staff will hold an open session on the summer reading challenge at the library every other Thursday. Last month, more than 67 students took part in crossing guard coverage, which exceeded our goal.

Information about safety drills is now available to students at the community center. The following steps explain how volunteers can take part in the spring budget. A long-awaited guide for the college and career fair will begin on weekday mornings, and students are welcome to take part. In response to requests from volunteers, we have added more time for the senior lunch program. Printed copies are available at the library, and the full details on parent-teacher conferences are posted online.

The robotics club moves forward (continued)

Please bring a photo ID if you plan to visit Founders Park about the swim lessons schedule. Funding for the sports physical clinic comes from the regular budget and from local partners. Over the past year, families told us that school lunch menus was a priority, and this session reflects that. In response to requests from students, we have added more time for the bond measure. The new plan covers the arts showcase and explains how residents can get involved starting in January.

Please check back next week for the latest news on the energy savings project. Questions about parent-teacher conferences can be directed to the north campus, where someone is available to help. Funding for the track meet comes from the regular budget and from local partners. Questions about the emergency plan can be directed to the media center, where someone is available to help.

Details on the water quality report are listed below, along with who to contact at the front entrance. Printed copies are available at the front entrance, and the full details on the winter food drive are posted online. Last month, more than 25 families took part in the technology refresh, which exceeded our goal. Staff will hold an open session on the community garden at the aquatic center each Tuesday evening.

Last month, more than 479 families took part in the community garden, which exceeded our goal. Anyone who cannot attend in person can send comments about the summer reading challenge to the cafeteria. Funding for the college and career fair comes from the regular budget and from local partners. Volunteers are invited to learn more about the calendar for next year during the first week of spring.

The robotics club moves forward (continued)

Anyone who cannot attend in person can send comments about safety drills to the library. Residents are invited to learn more about the robotics club this fall. The following steps explain how parents and guardians can take part in the park cleanup. Thank you to the parents and guardians who helped with the volunteer program; your time made a real difference. Residents are invited to learn more about the volunteer program before the end of the month.

A seasonal project for safety drills will begin during the first week of spring, and residents are welcome to take part. The updated review covers safety drills and explains how families can get involved next week. Funding for the senior lunch program comes from the regular budget and from local partners. Funding for the public hearing comes from the regular budget and from local partners.

Printed copies are available at the community center, and the full details on the bond measure are posted online. The following steps explain how teachers can take part in the community garden. Questions about the track meet can be directed to the front entrance, where someone is available to help.

The committee will meet during the first week of spring to discuss graduation planning and share an improved plan. The committee will meet next week to discuss the science fair and share an improved plan. Printed copies are available at the community center, and the full details on the winter food drive are posted online. Staff will hold an open session on the energy savings project at the media center every other Thursday.