Update on after-school programs

Accommodations are available on request; ask at the district office before every other Thursday. A long-awaited service for the robotics club will begin during the first week of spring, and community partners are welcome to take part. Staff will hold an open session on the community garden at the main office every other Thursday. The following steps explain how families can take part in attendance support.

Changes to the energy savings project take effect next week, and residents will receive a reminder beforehand. The committee will meet during the first week of spring to discuss the summer reading challenge and share an long-awaited workshop. Please check back starting in January for the latest news on the arts showcase. A new guide for the arts showcase will begin this fall, and families are welcome to take part.

For the robotics club, the plan is to start small each Tuesday evening and grow based on what teachers tell us. The following steps explain how board members can take part in the water quality report. Staff will hold an open session on kindergarten registration at City Hall before the end of the month. The following steps explain how residents can take part in the college and career fair.

Questions about the community garden can be directed to the media center, where someone is available to help. Students are invited to learn more about language classes each Tuesday evening. The updated schedule covers the emergency plan and explains how neighbors can get involved over the winter break. The redesigned report covers the public hearing and explains how board members can get involved during the first week of spring. The following steps explain how volunteers can take part in safety drills.

Update on after-school programs (continued)

Families are invited to learn more about the road resurfacing every other Thursday. This guide is part of a larger effort to support teachers and to keep the park cleanup on track. Printed copies are available at City Hall, and the full details on the calendar for next year are posted online. Funding for the arts showcase comes from the regular budget and from local partners. The committee will meet by the end of the term to discuss language classes and share an volunteer-led report.

Printed copies are available at the gymnasium, and the full details on the science fair are posted online. Details on the public hearing are listed below, along with who to contact at the gymnasium. This session is part of a larger effort to support community partners and to keep the technology refresh on track.

Neighbors are invited to learn more about the emergency plan during the first week of spring. The team reviewed feedback on the calendar for next year and made several changes to the program. Changes to the spring budget take effect by the end of the term, and families will receive a reminder beforehand. Changes to the calendar for next year take effect before the end of the month, and parents and guardians will receive a reminder beforehand. Parents and guardians are invited to learn more about the farmers market during the first week of spring.

Staff will hold an open session on kindergarten registration at the library before the end of the month. This schedule is part of a larger effort to support staff members and to keep the science fair on track. Thank you to the community partners who helped with the road resurfacing; your time made a real difference.