Update on the technology refresh

Over the past year, students told us that crossing guard coverage was a priority, and this service reflects that. Details on the arts showcase are listed below, along with who to contact at the community center. Thank you to the residents who helped with the summer reading challenge; your time made a real difference. The team reviewed feedback on school lunch menus and made several changes to the review.

This workshop is part of a larger effort to support teachers and to keep the swim lessons schedule on track. Information about the spring budget is now available to community partners at the gymnasium. Anyone who cannot attend in person can send comments about the spring concert to City Hall. This program is part of a larger effort to support board members and to keep the facilities plan on track. Over the past year, parents and guardians told us that the senior lunch program was a priority, and this guide reflects that.

Details on the swim lessons schedule are listed below, along with who to contact at the media center. Please bring a photo ID if you plan to visit City Hall about the energy savings project. Last month, more than 166 staff members took part in the emergency plan, which exceeded our goal.

Changes to the sports physical clinic take effect this fall, and students will receive a reminder beforehand. Please bring a photo ID if you plan to visit the library about the science fair. The improved schedule covers the facilities plan and explains how neighbors can get involved starting in January.

Update on the technology refresh (continued)

In response to requests from families, we have added more time for the winter food drive. Questions about parent-teacher conferences can be directed to the aquatic center, where someone is available to help. Information about the swim lessons schedule is now available to parents and guardians at the district office.

The following steps explain how volunteers can take part in the student council election. Neighbors are invited to learn more about the library renovation every other Thursday. Questions about the technology refresh can be directed to Founders Park, where someone is available to help. Questions about the robotics club can be directed to City Hall, where someone is available to help.

Last month, more than 236 neighbors took part in the volunteer program, which exceeded our goal. In response to requests from community partners, we have added more time for the arts showcase. Details on graduation planning are listed below, along with who to contact at the cafeteria.

Last month, more than 94 students took part in kindergarten registration, which exceeded our goal. The team reviewed feedback on the park cleanup and made several changes to the review. Over the past year, staff members told us that crossing guard coverage was a priority, and this project reflects that. Questions about the energy savings project can be directed to the north campus, where someone is available to help.

Update on the technology refresh (continued)

Staff will hold an open session on the sports physical clinic at Founders Park this fall. Accommodations are available on request; ask at the gymnasium before each Tuesday evening. Staff will hold an open session on bus routes at City Hall over the winter break. Printed copies are available at the community center, and the full details on the robotics club are posted online. In response to requests from board members, we have added more time for school lunch menus.

Anyone who cannot attend in person can send comments about the spring concert to the north campus. Staff will hold an open session on the farmers market at the cafeteria before the end of the month. Please bring a photo ID if you plan to visit City Hall about attendance support. Last month, more than 327 residents took part in the public hearing, which exceeded our goal. In response to requests from students, we have added more time for the bond measure.

Residents are invited to learn more about the senior lunch program this fall. This review is part of a larger effort to support neighbors and to keep the college and career fair on track. For the library renovation, the plan is to start small each Tuesday evening and grow based on what staff members tell us.

Staff will hold an open session on the college and career fair at the cafeteria next week. Questions about parent-teacher conferences can be directed to the media center, where someone is available to help. For crossing guard coverage, the plan is to start small each Tuesday evening and grow based on what students tell us. This guide is part of a larger effort to support staff members and to keep attendance support on track.