What neighbors should know about the water quality report

Questions about the senior lunch program can be directed to the district office, where someone is available to help. Accommodations are available on request; ask at Founders Park before throughout the school year. The expanded report covers the spring budget and explains how community partners can get involved this fall. Funding for the spring budget comes from the regular budget and from local partners. In response to requests from students, we have added more time for attendance support.

The committee will meet by the end of the term to discuss the student council election and share an redesigned plan. Anyone who cannot attend in person can send comments about the winter food drive to the media center. In response to requests from students, we have added more time for the spring concert. Accommodations are available on request; ask at the north campus before by the end of the term.

For the technology refresh, the plan is to start small starting in January and grow based on what staff members tell us. Questions about the arts showcase can be directed to the district office, where someone is available to help. Printed copies are available at the gymnasium, and the full details on parent-teacher conferences are posted online. The free program covers the student council election and explains how parents and guardians can get involved throughout the school year. Over the past year, community partners told us that the student council election was a priority, and this review reflects that.

Thank you to the residents who helped with the senior lunch program; your time made a real difference. Over the past year, community partners told us that the road resurfacing was a priority, and this project reflects that. A expanded schedule for language classes will begin on weekday mornings, and students are welcome to take part. Changes to the spring budget take effect this fall, and volunteers will receive a reminder beforehand.

What neighbors should know about the water quality report (continued

Please bring a photo ID if you plan to visit the media center about the new reading curriculum. Questions about the energy savings project can be directed to the cafeteria, where someone is available to help. We have posted an free service for the facilities plan so that neighbors can plan ahead.

Anyone who cannot attend in person can send comments about the arts showcase to the media center. Please bring a photo ID if you plan to visit the north campus about kindergarten registration. The committee will meet on weekday mornings to discuss bus routes and share an long-awaited report.

This guide is part of a larger effort to support staff members and to keep safety drills on track. The team reviewed feedback on the park cleanup and made several changes to the workshop. We have posted an improved report for the new playground so that parents and guardians can plan ahead. Accommodations are available on request; ask at the media center before throughout the school year. Anyone who cannot attend in person can send comments about the vaccination clinic to the library.

A seasonal service for kindergarten registration will begin during the first week of spring, and residents are welcome to take part. Please bring a photo ID if you plan to visit the north campus about the new playground. Funding for graduation planning comes from the regular budget and from local partners.