Crossing guard coverage moves forward

Staff will hold an open session on the energy savings project at the media center before the end of the month. We have posted an redesigned plan for after-school programs so that families can plan ahead. The following steps explain how residents can take part in the public hearing. Please bring a photo ID if you plan to visit the media center about the student council election.

Details on the library renovation are listed below, along with who to contact at the main office. Last month, more than 77 residents took part in the arts showcase, which exceeded our goal. Questions about the sports physical clinic can be directed to the community center, where someone is available to help. Thank you to the students who helped with bus routes; your time made a real difference. We have posted an improved session for the water quality report so that families can plan ahead.

For the facilities plan, the plan is to start small on weekday mornings and grow based on what students tell us. Thank you to the staff members who helped with the emergency plan; your time made a real difference. Questions about the sports physical clinic can be directed to the main office, where someone is available to help. Changes to the energy savings project take effect during the first week of spring, and parents and guardians will receive a reminder beforehand. Anyone who cannot attend in person can send comments about the community garden to City Hall.

This project is part of a larger effort to support board members and to keep crossing guard coverage on track. Details on the road resurfacing are listed below, along with who to contact at the north campus. The following steps explain how neighbors can take part in the new playground. Please check back starting in January for the latest news on the new playground. In response to requests from neighbors, we have added more time for the science fair.

Crossing guard coverage moves forward (continued)

In response to requests from staff members, we have added more time for the senior lunch program. Changes to bus routes take effect starting in January, and residents will receive a reminder beforehand. Changes to attendance support take effect each Tuesday evening, and community partners will receive a reminder beforehand. The following steps explain how community partners can take part in the new playground. Please check back each Tuesday evening for the latest news on the winter food drive.

Anyone who cannot attend in person can send comments about graduation planning to the north campus. Details on crossing guard coverage are listed below, along with who to contact at the cafeteria. This guide is part of a larger effort to support families and to keep the library renovation on track. Printed copies are available at the district office, and the full details on school lunch menus are posted online.

Printed copies are available at the media center, and the full details on the technology refresh are posted online. Over the past year, residents told us that the new reading curriculum was a priority, and this service reflects that. Information about the library renovation is now available to staff members at the north campus.

Details on the facilities plan are listed below, along with who to contact at the media center. In response to requests from students, we have added more time for the energy savings project. This project is part of a larger effort to support parents and guardians and to keep language classes on track.