Free report announced for the facilities plan

The committee will meet over the winter break to discuss attendance support and share an popular program. Thank you to the community partners who helped with the science fair; your time made a real difference. The expanded session covers the spring concert and explains how families can get involved before the end of the month.

The redesigned report covers the student council election and explains how neighbors can get involved on weekday mornings. Volunteers are invited to learn more about the library renovation before the end of the month. A seasonal review for the sports physical clinic will begin each Tuesday evening, and parents and guardians are welcome to take part. Printed copies are available at the cafeteria, and the full details on school lunch menus are posted online.

For the park cleanup, the plan is to start small this fall and grow based on what teachers tell us. Residents are invited to learn more about the emergency plan during the first week of spring. Over the past year, parents and guardians told us that after-school programs was a priority, and this program reflects that.

The committee will meet every other Thursday to discuss the technology refresh and share an new service. The following steps explain how families can take part in the calendar for next year. In response to requests from neighbors, we have added more time for graduation planning.

Free report announced for the facilities plan (continued)

Printed copies are available at the north campus, and the full details on attendance support are posted online. Please bring a photo ID if you plan to visit Founders Park about the spring budget. A redesigned project for crossing guard coverage will begin starting in January, and students are welcome to take part. In response to requests from neighbors, we have added more time for after-school programs. Staff will hold an open session on kindergarten registration at the media center starting in January.

For attendance support, the plan is to start small this fall and grow based on what volunteers tell us. Changes to kindergarten registration take effect next week, and families will receive a reminder beforehand. The team reviewed feedback on the college and career fair and made several changes to the program.

The seasonal report covers bus routes and explains how families can get involved by the end of the term. Please check back every other Thursday for the latest news on the science fair. Over the past year, families told us that the road resurfacing was a priority, and this session reflects that. A updated guide for after-school programs will begin before the end of the month, and teachers are welcome to take part.

A updated session for after-school programs will begin during the first week of spring, and volunteers are welcome to take part. For language classes, the plan is to start small this fall and grow based on what volunteers tell us. In response to requests from volunteers, we have added more time for the robotics club. In response to requests from students, we have added more time for crossing guard coverage.