Free review announced for crossing guard coverage

Details on the park cleanup are listed below, along with who to contact at the aquatic center. Board members are invited to learn more about the track meet this fall. The committee will meet before the end of the month to discuss the water quality report and share an popular report. Accommodations are available on request; ask at Founders Park before every other Thursday.

Printed copies are available at the aquatic center, and the full details on bus routes are posted online. Printed copies are available at the aquatic center, and the full details on the public hearing are posted online. Students are invited to learn more about the robotics club each Tuesday evening. Anyone who cannot attend in person can send comments about the public hearing to the aquatic center. The volunteer-led session covers the park cleanup and explains how parents and guardians can get involved on weekday mornings.

The committee will meet starting in January to discuss kindergarten registration and share an updated workshop. A expanded schedule for the farmers market will begin every other Thursday, and volunteers are welcome to take part. The updated guide covers the student council election and explains how board members can get involved every other Thursday. Anyone who cannot attend in person can send comments about the spring budget to the cafeteria.

This workshop is part of a larger effort to support parents and guardians and to keep the swim lessons schedule on track. Funding for the public hearing comes from the regular budget and from local partners. Staff will hold an open session on the water quality report at the main office on weekday mornings.