Join us on weekday mornings for the arts showcase

Accommodations are available on request; ask at the main office before throughout the school year. A redesigned guide for the vaccination clinic will begin before the end of the month, and teachers are welcome to take part. Please check back by the end of the term for the latest news on the new reading curriculum. Questions about the park cleanup can be directed to the main office, where someone is available to help.

The following steps explain how students can take part in the arts showcase. Staff will hold an open session on parent-teacher conferences at the gymnasium before the end of the month. We have posted an seasonal plan for safety drills so that residents can plan ahead. Please bring a photo ID if you plan to visit the district office about the spring concert. The committee will meet each Tuesday evening to discuss kindergarten registration and share an volunteer-led program.

Questions about the public hearing can be directed to the north campus, where someone is available to help. Students are invited to learn more about the calendar for next year throughout the school year. Please bring a photo ID if you plan to visit the media center about the new playground.

For the technology refresh, the plan is to start small during the first week of spring and grow based on what community partners tell us. Residents are invited to learn more about the new playground during the first week of spring. In response to requests from neighbors, we have added more time for the emergency plan. The committee will meet by the end of the term to discuss the road resurfacing and share an improved program. Funding for the farmers market comes from the regular budget and from local partners.
