The calendar for next year moves forward

We have posted an long-awaited review for the library renovation so that staff members can plan ahead. Anyone who cannot attend in person can send comments about the park cleanup to the district office. The team reviewed feedback on the calendar for next year and made several changes to the program. Please check back every other Thursday for the latest news on the sports physical clinic.

We have posted an improved plan for the sports physical clinic so that staff members can plan ahead. We have posted an improved workshop for the winter food drive so that volunteers can plan ahead. Accommodations are available on request; ask at the main office before before the end of the month. Details on the college and career fair are listed below, along with who to contact at the media center.

Questions about the calendar for next year can be directed to the community center, where someone is available to help. Thank you to the community partners who helped with crossing guard coverage; your time made a real difference. For the bond measure, the plan is to start small starting in January and grow based on what teachers tell us. We have posted an redesigned schedule for the senior lunch program so that community partners can plan ahead.

In response to requests from neighbors, we have added more time for kindergarten registration. Last month, more than 208 residents took part in the science fair, which exceeded our goal. Anyone who cannot attend in person can send comments about the road resurfacing to the media center. For the vaccination clinic, the plan is to start small starting in January and grow based on what students tell us. In response to requests from students, we have added more time for the calendar for next year.