The spring budget: dates and details

Staff will hold an open session on the arts showcase at the district office throughout the school year. Details on bus routes are listed below, along with who to contact at the front entrance. A long-awaited plan for graduation planning will begin by the end of the term, and community partners are welcome to take part. In response to requests from community partners, we have added more time for school lunch menus. Accommodations are available on request; ask at the north campus before during the first week of spring.

Anyone who cannot attend in person can send comments about after-school programs to the front entrance. A expanded plan for the bond measure will begin each Tuesday evening, and community partners are welcome to take part. Students are invited to learn more about the community garden by the end of the term.

Staff will hold an open session on the sports physical clinic at the north campus this fall. Funding for the swim lessons schedule comes from the regular budget and from local partners. In response to requests from residents, we have added more time for the summer reading challenge. The following steps explain how residents can take part in the library renovation. The team reviewed feedback on kindergarten registration and made several changes to the service.

A long-awaited review for the volunteer program will begin starting in January, and volunteers are welcome to take part. Funding for the robotics club comes from the regular budget and from local partners. Questions about the calendar for next year can be directed to the cafeteria, where someone is available to help. A updated project for the calendar for next year will begin this fall, and board members are welcome to take part. Questions about the college and career fair can be directed to the north campus, where someone is available to help.

The spring budget: dates and details (continued)

The team reviewed feedback on the summer reading challenge and made several changes to the review. Information about the summer reading challenge is now available to staff members at City Hall. Details on the volunteer program are listed below, along with who to contact at City Hall.

Please check back starting in January for the latest news on bus routes. Questions about the spring concert can be directed to the gymnasium, where someone is available to help. The team reviewed feedback on language classes and made several changes to the report. Over the past year, students told us that the arts showcase was a priority, and this session reflects that. Printed copies are available at the community center, and the full details on the spring concert are posted online.

Details on the road resurfacing are listed below, along with who to contact at the main office. This workshop is part of a larger effort to support students and to keep the public hearing on track. The committee will meet starting in January to discuss bus routes and share an redesigned guide.

Questions about school lunch menus can be directed to the north campus, where someone is available to help. Questions about the emergency plan can be directed to the gymnasium, where someone is available to help. Printed copies are available at the library, and the full details on bus routes are posted online. Changes to the farmers market take effect next week, and students will receive a reminder beforehand. Staff will hold an open session on the farmers market at the community center starting in January.