Update on the arts showcase

Board members are invited to learn more about bus routes throughout the school year. Printed copies are available at the gymnasium, and the full details on the farmers market are posted online. Funding for the new playground comes from the regular budget and from local partners. Printed copies are available at City Hall, and the full details on language classes are posted online.

The following steps explain how volunteers can take part in the swim lessons schedule. Staff will hold an open session on the senior lunch program at the cafeteria by the end of the term. Questions about the public hearing can be directed to the media center, where someone is available to help. Thank you to the volunteers who helped with the student council election; your time made a real difference. Please bring a photo ID if you plan to visit the media center about the facilities plan.

Changes to the spring budget take effect this fall, and community partners will receive a reminder beforehand. Volunteers are invited to learn more about the student council election throughout the school year. This report is part of a larger effort to support teachers and to keep kindergarten registration on track. Funding for the spring concert comes from the regular budget and from local partners.

Accommodations are available on request; ask at the front entrance before each Tuesday evening. Last month, more than 431 residents took part in the water quality report, which exceeded our goal. Last month, more than 346 volunteers took part in the energy savings project, which exceeded our goal. Questions about the facilities plan can be directed to the main office, where someone is available to help.