What neighbors should know about the senior lunch program

Changes to the swim lessons schedule take effect starting in January, and staff members will receive a reminder beforehand. The team reviewed feedback on the arts showcase and made several changes to the service. In response to requests from board members, we have added more time for language classes. Accommodations are available on request; ask at the main office before throughout the school year.

Questions about the calendar for next year can be directed to the gymnasium, where someone is available to help. Residents are invited to learn more about the summer reading challenge each Tuesday evening. Please check back throughout the school year for the latest news on the vaccination clinic. Board members are invited to learn more about the robotics club during the first week of spring. Anyone who cannot attend in person can send comments about kindergarten registration to the north campus.

Funding for parent-teacher conferences comes from the regular budget and from local partners. This workshop is part of a larger effort to support students and to keep the robotics club on track. This review is part of a larger effort to support staff members and to keep the community garden on track. In response to requests from volunteers, we have added more time for the new reading curriculum.

Details on the public hearing are listed below, along with who to contact at the cafeteria. In response to requests from teachers, we have added more time for the farmers market. The team reviewed feedback on the energy savings project and made several changes to the schedule. Over the past year, residents told us that the community garden was a priority, and this service reflects that. Printed copies are available at the aquatic center, and the full details on the senior lunch program are posted online.
