Free review announced for the vaccination clinic

Printed copies are available at the library, and the full details on the track meet are posted online. Please check back over the winter break for the latest news on the farmers market. The team reviewed feedback on the farmers market and made several changes to the guide. Staff will hold an open session on the senior lunch program at the cafeteria throughout the school year.

Please check back over the winter break for the latest news on school lunch menus. Questions about safety drills can be directed to the aquatic center, where someone is available to help. The committee will meet starting in January to discuss the science fair and share an new workshop. Staff will hold an open session on the park cleanup at Founders Park by the end of the term. We have posted an seasonal plan for the library renovation so that teachers can plan ahead.

For graduation planning, the plan is to start small starting in January and grow based on what neighbors tell us. Changes to the farmers market take effect every other Thursday, and students will receive a reminder beforehand. Thank you to the parents and guardians who helped with the robotics club; your time made a real difference. This review is part of a larger effort to support residents and to keep the community garden on track. Thank you to the staff members who helped with the sports physical clinic; your time made a real difference.

Thank you to the board members who helped with the water quality report; your time made a real difference. Please check back during the first week of spring for the latest news on the college and career fair. The following steps explain how residents can take part in safety drills.

Free review announced for the vaccination clinic (continued)

Printed copies are available at Founders Park, and the full details on the technology refresh are posted online. Thank you to the board members who helped with the community garden; your time made a real difference. Details on the new reading curriculum are listed below, along with who to contact at the north campus.

Board members are invited to learn more about the road resurfacing starting in January. Information about parent-teacher conferences is now available to community partners at City Hall. In response to requests from neighbors, we have added more time for the farmers market. The committee will meet on weekday mornings to discuss the facilities plan and share an expanded workshop. Information about the new reading curriculum is now available to board members at Founders Park.

Details on the water quality report are listed below, along with who to contact at Founders Park. Accommodations are available on request; ask at the cafeteria before during the first week of spring. Funding for the robotics club comes from the regular budget and from local partners. Details on the spring concert are listed below, along with who to contact at the library.

Changes to the new reading curriculum take effect every other Thursday, and volunteers will receive a reminder beforehand. Please bring a photo ID if you plan to visit the media center about the public hearing. Please bring a photo ID if you plan to visit the media center about the college and career fair. Details on the calendar for next year are listed below, along with who to contact at the media center.

Free review announced for the vaccination clinic (continued)

Thank you to the residents who helped with parent-teacher conferences; your time made a real difference. The redesigned session covers the community garden and explains how students can get involved before the end of the month. The following steps explain how families can take part in the senior lunch program. This service is part of a larger effort to support students and to keep the public hearing on track. Details on the science fair are listed below, along with who to contact at the cafeteria.

Last month, more than 59 neighbors took part in the winter food drive, which exceeded our goal. Last month, more than 325 community partners took part in the water quality report, which exceeded our goal. Changes to the park cleanup take effect over the winter break, and community partners will receive a reminder beforehand. Families are invited to learn more about safety drills before the end of the month.

Accommodations are available on request; ask at the cafeteria before this fall. Staff will hold an open session on the technology refresh at the media center over the winter break. Information about the technology refresh is now available to residents at the community center. The redesigned program covers the energy savings project and explains how students can get involved over the winter break.

Thank you to the community partners who helped with parent-teacher conferences; your time made a real difference. For crossing guard coverage, the plan is to start small on weekday mornings and grow based on what neighbors tell us. Staff will hold an open session on school lunch menus at the front entrance on weekday mornings. Last month, more than 244 volunteers took part in the new playground, which exceeded our goal. This review is part of a larger effort to support families and to keep the swim lessons schedule on track.