Join us by the end of the term for the technology refresh

The seasonal service covers school lunch menus and explains how community partners can get involved every other Thursday. Please bring a photo ID if you plan to visit the media center about the spring concert. A updated workshop for the sports physical clinic will begin over the winter break, and parents and guardians are welcome to take part. Information about the arts showcase is now available to neighbors at the community center.

Thank you to the parents and guardians who helped with the new playground; your time made a real difference. Printed copies are available at the north campus, and the full details on the robotics club are posted online. Thank you to the families who helped with the summer reading challenge; your time made a real difference. The team reviewed feedback on school lunch menus and made several changes to the session.

Anyone who cannot attend in person can send comments about kindergarten registration to the front entrance. Changes to the new reading curriculum take effect on weekday mornings, and staff members will receive a reminder beforehand. Please check back by the end of the term for the latest news on the summer reading challenge.

Community partners are invited to learn more about graduation planning during the first week of spring. The long-awaited program covers the swim lessons schedule and explains how residents can get involved before the end of the month. Over the past year, staff members told us that the calendar for next year was a priority, and this session reflects that. We have posted an expanded service for crossing guard coverage so that neighbors can plan ahead.
