Join us starting in January for the library renovation

Printed copies are available at the community center, and the full details on the farmers market are posted online. A free program for the park cleanup will begin each Tuesday evening, and residents are welcome to take part. This service is part of a larger effort to support parents and guardians and to keep the new playground on track. Last month, more than 21 residents took part in the public hearing, which exceeded our goal.

Printed copies are available at the cafeteria, and the full details on the spring concert are posted online. Anyone who cannot attend in person can send comments about the facilities plan to the district office. Information about the college and career fair is now available to residents at the cafeteria. Over the past year, teachers told us that the track meet was a priority, and this guide reflects that. This report is part of a larger effort to support students and to keep the public hearing on track.

In response to requests from teachers, we have added more time for the library renovation. Printed copies are available at the north campus, and the full details on kindergarten registration are posted online. Information about the energy savings project is now available to teachers at the north campus.

The following steps explain how board members can take part in the new playground. Please check back throughout the school year for the latest news on language classes. The following steps explain how volunteers can take part in the student council election.