Kindergarten registration: dates and details

Staff will hold an open session on the library renovation at the cafeteria on weekday mornings. A volunteer-led session for parent-teacher conferences will begin throughout the school year, and board members are welcome to take part. Changes to the winter food drive take effect each Tuesday evening, and neighbors will receive a reminder beforehand.

We have posted an free review for the science fair so that teachers can plan ahead. Funding for the community garden comes from the regular budget and from local partners. Changes to the technology refresh take effect every other Thursday, and teachers will receive a reminder beforehand.

For the park cleanup, the plan is to start small this fall and grow based on what residents tell us. Staff will hold an open session on crossing guard coverage at the district office next week. Staff will hold an open session on the sports physical clinic at the front entrance by the end of the term. Changes to the facilities plan take effect this fall, and residents will receive a reminder beforehand.

Please bring a photo ID if you plan to visit the main office about school lunch menus. We have posted an expanded program for the water quality report so that families can plan ahead. Thank you to the parents and guardians who helped with the swim lessons schedule; your time made a real difference. We have posted an new service for the park cleanup so that board members can plan ahead. Changes to the energy savings project take effect on weekday mornings, and residents will receive a reminder beforehand.

Kindergarten registration: dates and details (continued)

In response to requests from volunteers, we have added more time for the winter food drive. Staff will hold an open session on the arts showcase at the district office starting in January. Please check back before the end of the month for the latest news on the robotics club.

Staff members are invited to learn more about the spring concert by the end of the term. Anyone who cannot attend in person can send comments about the spring concert to the north campus. For the technology refresh, the plan is to start small this fall and grow based on what parents and guardians tell us.

Information about the public hearing is now available to parents and guardians at the district office. Please check back on weekday mornings for the latest news on the water quality report. We have posted an free program for the facilities plan so that parents and guardians can plan ahead. Students are invited to learn more about the vaccination clinic each Tuesday evening.

For language classes, the plan is to start small every other Thursday and grow based on what residents tell us. Anyone who cannot attend in person can send comments about attendance support to the main office. The team reviewed feedback on the science fair and made several changes to the service. The following steps explain how teachers can take part in the community garden. A updated review for the winter food drive will begin over the winter break, and parents and guardians are welcome to take part.

Kindergarten registration: dates and details (continued)

Staff will hold an open session on the bond measure at the library every other Thursday. Students are invited to learn more about language classes this fall. Details on bus routes are listed below, along with who to contact at Founders Park. Community partners are invited to learn more about the new playground during the first week of spring. Please bring a photo ID if you plan to visit the north campus about parent-teacher conferences.

Thank you to the families who helped with the farmers market; your time made a real difference. The committee will meet each Tuesday evening to discuss the water quality report and share an expanded program. A new plan for safety drills will begin starting in January, and families are welcome to take part.

The team reviewed feedback on the new reading curriculum and made several changes to the plan. Information about the sports physical clinic is now available to neighbors at the north campus. This plan is part of a larger effort to support community partners and to keep the senior lunch program on track. Teachers are invited to learn more about parent-teacher conferences on weekday mornings. Families are invited to learn more about the spring concert throughout the school year.

Last month, more than 120 staff members took part in crossing guard coverage, which exceeded our goal. In response to requests from families, we have added more time for the farmers market. A long-awaited review for the arts showcase will begin on weekday mornings, and families are welcome to take part. Last month, more than 425 parents and guardians took part in the technology refresh, which exceeded our goal. The following steps explain how staff members can take part in the road resurfacing.