Thank you for helping with the volunteer program

The committee will meet over the winter break to discuss the swim lessons schedule and share an improved plan. Thank you to the volunteers who helped with the facilities plan; your time made a real difference. The following steps explain how residents can take part in the spring budget. Last month, more than 276 residents took part in the emergency plan, which exceeded our goal.

This review is part of a larger effort to support neighbors and to keep after-school programs on track. Over the past year, families told us that the college and career fair was a priority, and this program reflects that. Details on the senior lunch program are listed below, along with who to contact at the community center. Thank you to the neighbors who helped with the senior lunch program; your time made a real difference. The following steps explain how students can take part in the public hearing.

We have posted an volunteer-led session for the technology refresh so that residents can plan ahead. Printed copies are available at the library, and the full details on the emergency plan are posted online. The redesigned workshop covers language classes and explains how board members can get involved over the winter break. Thank you to the residents who helped with bus routes; your time made a real difference. This report is part of a larger effort to support parents and guardians and to keep the senior lunch program on track.

Printed copies are available at the cafeteria, and the full details on language classes are posted online. Staff will hold an open session on the winter food drive at the cafeteria this fall. The following steps explain how staff members can take part in the public hearing. For the technology refresh, the plan is to start small next week and grow based on what community partners tell us.