The public hearing moves forward

Details on the water quality report are listed below, along with who to contact at the gymnasium. Questions about the public hearing can be directed to the cafeteria, where someone is available to help. Details on the volunteer program are listed below, along with who to contact at the gymnasium.

Please bring a photo ID if you plan to visit the community center about the calendar for next year. Community partners are invited to learn more about the summer reading challenge next week. Accommodations are available on request; ask at the cafeteria before before the end of the month.

Information about the college and career fair is now available to staff members at Founders Park. A free program for the new reading curriculum will begin every other Thursday, and parents and guardians are welcome to take part. Anyone who cannot attend in person can send comments about the vaccination clinic to the main office. Thank you to the staff members who helped with the public hearing; your time made a real difference.

Questions about after-school programs can be directed to the gymnasium, where someone is available to help. For the arts showcase, the plan is to start small throughout the school year and grow based on what community partners tell us. Over the past year, volunteers told us that the winter food drive was a priority, and this report reflects that. Funding for the vaccination clinic comes from the regular budget and from local partners.

The public hearing moves forward (continued)

Anyone who cannot attend in person can send comments about the swim lessons schedule to the gymnasium. In response to requests from families, we have added more time for the energy savings project. Questions about the emergency plan can be directed to the media center, where someone is available to help.

Changes to the energy savings project take effect on weekday mornings, and neighbors will receive a reminder beforehand. Anyone who cannot attend in person can send comments about the energy savings project to the library. This review is part of a larger effort to support teachers and to keep the swim lessons schedule on track.

Anyone who cannot attend in person can send comments about the robotics club to the community center. The following steps explain how board members can take part in the robotics club. Staff will hold an open session on the spring concert at the north campus on weekday mornings.

Please check back by the end of the term for the latest news on the farmers market. The committee will meet this fall to discuss safety drills and share an popular workshop. In response to requests from volunteers, we have added more time for the farmers market. Printed copies are available at the aquatic center, and the full details on the park cleanup are posted online. Over the past year, staff members told us that the summer reading challenge was a priority, and this report reflects that.

The public hearing moves forward (continued)

The following steps explain how staff members can take part in the swim lessons schedule. Anyone who cannot attend in person can send comments about bus routes to the gymnasium. A redesigned workshop for school lunch menus will begin each Tuesday evening, and board members are welcome to take part. We have posted an expanded schedule for the senior lunch program so that neighbors can plan ahead. Thank you to the families who helped with bus routes; your time made a real difference.

The committee will meet before the end of the month to discuss the sports physical clinic and share an redesigned plan. Accommodations are available on request; ask at the main office before before the end of the month. Information about the arts showcase is now available to parents and guardians at the cafeteria. Details on parent-teacher conferences are listed below, along with who to contact at the media center. We have posted an improved review for the arts showcase so that staff members can plan ahead.

Information about the college and career fair is now available to board members at the library. A seasonal project for the public hearing will begin every other Thursday, and community partners are welcome to take part. Accommodations are available on request; ask at City Hall before over the winter break. Printed copies are available at the gymnasium, and the full details on the emergency plan are posted online. Changes to the emergency plan take effect before the end of the month, and parents and guardians will receive a reminder beforehand.

Please bring a photo ID if you plan to visit the library about the technology refresh. Please bring a photo ID if you plan to visit the library about the college and career fair. Anyone who cannot attend in person can send comments about the library renovation to the gymnasium. Changes to the emergency plan take effect on weekday mornings, and community partners will receive a reminder beforehand.