What community partners should know about the library renovation

Details on the public hearing are listed below, along with who to contact at the cafeteria. Thank you to the residents who helped with the technology refresh; your time made a real difference. Information about the new reading curriculum is now available to families at the gymnasium. The improved schedule covers the science fair and explains how students can get involved throughout the school year.

Over the past year, parents and guardians told us that the library renovation was a priority, and this report reflects that. Details on the sports physical clinic are listed below, along with who to contact at the front entrance. Thank you to the community partners who helped with the summer reading challenge; your time made a real difference. Last month, more than 85 teachers took part in the vaccination clinic, which exceeded our goal. Please check back during the first week of spring for the latest news on the robotics club.

Over the past year, residents told us that the robotics club was a priority, and this review reflects that. In response to requests from parents and guardians, we have added more time for parent-teacher conferences. Anyone who cannot attend in person can send comments about safety drills to the main office. Changes to the arts showcase take effect during the first week of spring, and parents and guardians will receive a reminder beforehand. Anyone who cannot attend in person can send comments about graduation planning to the north campus.

The following steps explain how families can take part in the facilities plan. For the spring concert, the plan is to start small on weekday mornings and grow based on what parents and guardians tell us. Information about graduation planning is now available to community partners at City Hall. Printed copies are available at the cafeteria, and the full details on the volunteer program are posted online. The redesigned program covers the robotics club and explains how volunteers can get involved during the first week of spring.

What community partners should know about the library renovation (c

For the college and career fair, the plan is to start small this fall and grow based on what board members tell us. Please check back each Tuesday evening for the latest news on the spring budget. Questions about the college and career fair can be directed to the main office, where someone is available to help. Community partners are invited to learn more about kindergarten registration starting in January.

The popular review covers the technology refresh and explains how parents and guardians can get involved before the end of the month. For the new playground, the plan is to start small this fall and grow based on what board members tell us. Questions about the volunteer program can be directed to the front entrance, where someone is available to help.

Funding for the senior lunch program comes from the regular budget and from local partners. We have posted an new plan for attendance support so that volunteers can plan ahead. Information about the community garden is now available to board members at the front entrance. Accommodations are available on request; ask at the front entrance before before the end of the month. Please bring a photo ID if you plan to visit the district office about bus routes.

The team reviewed feedback on the winter food drive and made several changes to the guide. In response to requests from families, we have added more time for the swim lessons schedule. A redesigned service for the senior lunch program will begin next week, and staff members are welcome to take part. In response to requests from volunteers, we have added more time for the robotics club. Anyone who cannot attend in person can send comments about the new playground to the library.