What volunteers should know about kindergarten registration

Information about the college and career fair is now available to teachers at the district office. A seasonal workshop for the library renovation will begin before the end of the month, and families are welcome to take part. Printed copies are available at City Hall, and the full details on the vaccination clinic are posted online. A updated program for the track meet will begin before the end of the month, and staff members are welcome to take part. Printed copies are available at the cafeteria, and the full details on the new reading curriculum are posted online.

Questions about the energy savings project can be directed to the gymnasium, where someone is available to help. Thank you to the residents who helped with the road resurfacing; your time made a real difference. Please check back on weekday mornings for the latest news on the community garden.

The team reviewed feedback on the library renovation and made several changes to the session. Thank you to the residents who helped with the arts showcase; your time made a real difference. Funding for the spring concert comes from the regular budget and from local partners. This session is part of a larger effort to support volunteers and to keep the library renovation on track.

We have posted an redesigned session for the winter food drive so that families can plan ahead. The team reviewed feedback on the bond measure and made several changes to the project. The team reviewed feedback on safety drills and made several changes to the report. Last month, more than 112 parents and guardians took part in the track meet, which exceeded our goal. For the facilities plan, the plan is to start small before the end of the month and grow based on what community partners tell us.

What volunteers should know about kindergarten registration (continue

Please check back by the end of the term for the latest news on the spring budget. For the track meet, the plan is to start small this fall and grow based on what volunteers tell us. The committee will meet throughout the school year to discuss graduation planning and share an long-awaited program.

Changes to parent-teacher conferences take effect during the first week of spring, and teachers will receive a reminder beforehand. For the library renovation, the plan is to start small during the first week of spring and grow based on what residents tell us. Information about the new playground is now available to families at Founders Park. Board members are invited to learn more about the spring concert starting in January.

This plan is part of a larger effort to support neighbors and to keep the bond measure on track. Please check back by the end of the term for the latest news on the college and career fair. Anyone who cannot attend in person can send comments about safety drills to Founders Park.

We have posted an new report for the student council election so that students can plan ahead. Please check back each Tuesday evening for the latest news on the bond measure. Printed copies are available at the aquatic center, and the full details on the summer reading challenge are posted online. The following steps explain how volunteers can take part in the road resurfacing.