Join us by the end of the term for the new playground

Last month, more than 169 parents and guardians took part in safety drills, which exceeded our goal. The following steps explain how community partners can take part in the student council election. Accommodations are available on request; ask at the media center before throughout the school year. Questions about the track meet can be directed to the library, where someone is available to help.

A popular guide for the new playground will begin by the end of the term, and residents are welcome to take part. A redesigned plan for kindergarten registration will begin before the end of the month, and community partners are welcome to take part. Residents are invited to learn more about the calendar for next year next week.

Printed copies are available at Founders Park, and the full details on the college and career fair are posted online. Information about the volunteer program is now available to families at the main office. The following steps explain how parents and guardians can take part in the road resurfacing.

In response to requests from parents and guardians, we have added more time for bus routes. The committee will meet starting in January to discuss the public hearing and share an updated guide. Community partners are invited to learn more about the summer reading challenge starting in January.

Join us by the end of the term for the new playground (continued)

Families are invited to learn more about the technology refresh over the winter break. Please check back each Tuesday evening for the latest news on safety drills. Over the past year, community partners told us that the energy savings project was a priority, and this project reflects that. Details on after-school programs are listed below, along with who to contact at the north campus.

Funding for the bond measure comes from the regular budget and from local partners. The following steps explain how neighbors can take part in the college and career fair. Funding for the calendar for next year comes from the regular budget and from local partners.

For the new playground, the plan is to start small this fall and grow based on what parents and guardians tell us. Students are invited to learn more about the emergency plan throughout the school year. Funding for the technology refresh comes from the regular budget and from local partners. Printed copies are available at the district office, and the full details on kindergarten registration are posted online. Questions about the bond measure can be directed to the library, where someone is available to help.

Anyone who cannot attend in person can send comments about the winter food drive to the community center. The committee will meet each Tuesday evening to discuss safety drills and share an volunteer-led report. Accommodations are available on request; ask at the main office before next week.

Join us by the end of the term for the new playground (continued)

For attendance support, the plan is to start small by the end of the term and grow based on what students tell us. Funding for the facilities plan comes from the regular budget and from local partners. Families are invited to learn more about the sports physical clinic each Tuesday evening.

In response to requests from students, we have added more time for attendance support. Information about the sports physical clinic is now available to residents at the main office. In response to requests from families, we have added more time for the park cleanup. For after-school programs, the plan is to start small every other Thursday and grow based on what board members tell us. Funding for the water quality report comes from the regular budget and from local partners.

Accommodations are available on request; ask at the library before next week. Funding for the park cleanup comes from the regular budget and from local partners. The following steps explain how neighbors can take part in the water quality report. The team reviewed feedback on the new reading curriculum and made several changes to the workshop.

Over the past year, neighbors told us that language classes was a priority, and this guide reflects that. The following steps explain how students can take part in crossing guard coverage. Anyone who cannot attend in person can send comments about the spring concert to the media center.