The library renovation moves forward

The new review covers the library renovation and explains how families can get involved by the end of the term. For the student council election, the plan is to start small before the end of the month and grow based on what volunteers tell us. Over the past year, community partners told us that the community garden was a priority, and this project reflects that. Information about after-school programs is now available to families at the district office. Over the past year, board members told us that the winter food drive was a priority, and this workshop reflects that.

The committee will meet before the end of the month to discuss the facilities plan and share an redesigned report. Please bring a photo ID if you plan to visit Founders Park about the senior lunch program. Thank you to the students who helped with the arts showcase; your time made a real difference. The team reviewed feedback on the bond measure and made several changes to the program. This review is part of a larger effort to support staff members and to keep the technology refresh on track.

The expanded review covers the robotics club and explains how volunteers can get involved each Tuesday evening. Board members are invited to learn more about the road resurfacing every other Thursday. Please check back on weekday mornings for the latest news on the swim lessons schedule. In response to requests from students, we have added more time for the college and career fair. The team reviewed feedback on the arts showcase and made several changes to the session.

Changes to the facilities plan take effect during the first week of spring, and community partners will receive a reminder beforehand. Over the past year, volunteers told us that the robotics club was a priority, and this plan reflects that. A seasonal service for the summer reading challenge will begin each Tuesday evening, and teachers are welcome to take part. The following steps explain how neighbors can take part in the public hearing.

The library renovation moves forward (continued)

For the calendar for next year, the plan is to start small every other Thursday and grow based on what residents tell us. Questions about school lunch menus can be directed to the community center, where someone is available to help. Details on the arts showcase are listed below, along with who to contact at the gymnasium.

Staff will hold an open session on the arts showcase at the gymnasium every other Thursday. Questions about the summer reading challenge can be directed to the media center, where someone is available to help. Please bring a photo ID if you plan to visit the district office about the community garden. Questions about the science fair can be directed to the district office, where someone is available to help.

Thank you to the parents and guardians who helped with kindergarten registration; your time made a real difference. The improved review covers the summer reading challenge and explains how board members can get involved each Tuesday evening. The improved session covers attendance support and explains how students can get involved starting in January. In response to requests from neighbors, we have added more time for the library renovation.

Please check back every other Thursday for the latest news on the swim lessons schedule. In response to requests from volunteers, we have added more time for the road resurfacing. Over the past year, staff members told us that crossing guard coverage was a priority, and this review reflects that. Parents and guardians are invited to learn more about the spring concert throughout the school year. Please bring a photo ID if you plan to visit the community center about the track meet.