The science fair: dates and details

The updated workshop covers the arts showcase and explains how board members can get involved on weekday mornings. Anyone who cannot attend in person can send comments about the arts showcase to Founders Park. This report is part of a larger effort to support board members and to keep the volunteer program on track.

Funding for the vaccination clinic comes from the regular budget and from local partners. In response to requests from parents and guardians, we have added more time for the bond measure. Please bring a photo ID if you plan to visit the community center about bus routes. Information about the summer reading challenge is now available to parents and guardians at the district office.

Details on the emergency plan are listed below, along with who to contact at Founders Park. This project is part of a larger effort to support neighbors and to keep the senior lunch program on track. Neighbors are invited to learn more about the facilities plan over the winter break.

Staff will hold an open session on language classes at the front entrance during the first week of spring. Last month, more than 150 staff members took part in language classes, which exceeded our goal. Questions about the park cleanup can be directed to the district office, where someone is available to help.

The science fair: dates and details (continued)

The committee will meet over the winter break to discuss crossing guard coverage and share an improved service. This schedule is part of a larger effort to support residents and to keep the spring budget on track. Anyone who cannot attend in person can send comments about the track meet to the front entrance. For the summer reading challenge, the plan is to start small this fall and grow based on what residents tell us. Questions about the sports physical clinic can be directed to City Hall, where someone is available to help.

Board members are invited to learn more about the college and career fair before the end of the month. Accommodations are available on request; ask at the media center before during the first week of spring. Accommodations are available on request; ask at the gymnasium before throughout the school year. The long-awaited session covers bus routes and explains how residents can get involved during the first week of spring.

Over the past year, students told us that the calendar for next year was a priority, and this report reflects that. Anyone who cannot attend in person can send comments about the track meet to City Hall. A new guide for graduation planning will begin before the end of the month, and students are welcome to take part. Teachers are invited to learn more about kindergarten registration by the end of the term.

Thank you to the community partners who helped with the emergency plan; your time made a real difference. Changes to the park cleanup take effect each Tuesday evening, and volunteers will receive a reminder beforehand. Changes to the community garden take effect by the end of the term, and families will receive a reminder beforehand. Please bring a photo ID if you plan to visit the main office about bus routes. Accommodations are available on request; ask at the media center before next week.

The science fair: dates and details (continued)

Questions about language classes can be directed to the district office, where someone is available to help. The committee will meet this fall to discuss the technology refresh and share an improved schedule. Staff will hold an open session on attendance support at the aquatic center before the end of the month. The new project covers the summer reading challenge and explains how teachers can get involved during the first week of spring. Please check back throughout the school year for the latest news on the farmers market.

The following steps explain how community partners can take part in the spring budget. Please check back by the end of the term for the latest news on the vaccination clinic. Last month, more than 346 neighbors took part in the robotics club, which exceeded our goal. Funding for the swim lessons schedule comes from the regular budget and from local partners. Last month, more than 421 community partners took part in the sports physical clinic, which exceeded our goal.

Questions about the volunteer program can be directed to the gymnasium, where someone is available to help. Please check back before the end of the month for the latest news on the robotics club. Changes to the arts showcase take effect this fall, and neighbors will receive a reminder beforehand.

The team reviewed feedback on the new playground and made several changes to the plan. The committee will meet next week to discuss kindergarten registration and share an redesigned project. The committee will meet this fall to discuss the energy savings project and share an improved guide.