What families should know about the park cleanup

Accommodations are available on request; ask at Founders Park before by the end of the term. The committee will meet next week to discuss the park cleanup and share an new session. Last month, more than 155 volunteers took part in the track meet, which exceeded our goal. Please check back during the first week of spring for the latest news on the track meet.

Questions about the spring concert can be directed to the library, where someone is available to help. Changes to the volunteer program take effect this fall, and residents will receive a reminder beforehand. A volunteer-led workshop for the new reading curriculum will begin this fall, and neighbors are welcome to take part.

Please check back next week for the latest news on safety drills. In response to requests from neighbors, we have added more time for after-school programs. For after-school programs, the plan is to start small on weekday mornings and grow based on what students tell us. A popular project for the arts showcase will begin starting in January, and teachers are welcome to take part.

Please bring a photo ID if you plan to visit City Hall about the sports physical clinic. This review is part of a larger effort to support parents and guardians and to keep the facilities plan on track. Details on the energy savings project are listed below, along with who to contact at the gymnasium.

What families should know about the park cleanup (continued)

Staff will hold an open session on the science fair at the north campus starting in January. Questions about the summer reading challenge can be directed to the front entrance, where someone is available to help. The following steps explain how parents and guardians can take part in the student council election. The team reviewed feedback on the technology refresh and made several changes to the report. In response to requests from students, we have added more time for the track meet.

Information about graduation planning is now available to families at the north campus. In response to requests from teachers, we have added more time for the robotics club. The following steps explain how neighbors can take part in the new reading curriculum. The following steps explain how teachers can take part in the track meet.

Information about the technology refresh is now available to families at the gymnasium. Accommodations are available on request; ask at Founders Park before during the first week of spring. Accommodations are available on request; ask at the media center before next week. The team reviewed feedback on the road resurfacing and made several changes to the program. Funding for the track meet comes from the regular budget and from local partners.

The team reviewed feedback on safety drills and made several changes to the schedule. Details on the farmers market are listed below, along with who to contact at the front entrance. Funding for parent-teacher conferences comes from the regular budget and from local partners. Staff will hold an open session on crossing guard coverage at the cafeteria by the end of the term. Funding for the technology refresh comes from the regular budget and from local partners.