Join us each Tuesday evening for the calendar for next year

The following steps explain how families can take part in the community garden. In response to requests from residents, we have added more time for the swim lessons schedule. Funding for the arts showcase comes from the regular budget and from local partners.

Questions about safety drills can be directed to Founders Park, where someone is available to help. The expanded project covers the road resurfacing and explains how parents and guardians can get involved before the end of the month. In response to requests from board members, we have added more time for the vaccination clinic. Funding for the road resurfacing comes from the regular budget and from local partners. Printed copies are available at the north campus, and the full details on the facilities plan are posted online.

We have posted an long-awaited review for bus routes so that staff members can plan ahead. Funding for the robotics club comes from the regular budget and from local partners. For graduation planning, the plan is to start small each Tuesday evening and grow based on what families tell us. Details on parent-teacher conferences are listed below, along with who to contact at the front entrance.

Accommodations are available on request; ask at the district office before over the winter break. Funding for the student council election comes from the regular budget and from local partners. Over the past year, volunteers told us that the college and career fair was a priority, and this report reflects that. Details on the sports physical clinic are listed below, along with who to contact at the district office.

Join us each Tuesday evening for the calendar for next year (continue

Anyone who cannot attend in person can send comments about the public hearing to the district office. In response to requests from board members, we have added more time for attendance support. In response to requests from students, we have added more time for bus routes. A long-awaited guide for after-school programs will begin during the first week of spring, and community partners are welcome to take part.

Funding for attendance support comes from the regular budget and from local partners. Details on attendance support are listed below, along with who to contact at the community center. In response to requests from students, we have added more time for attendance support. We have posted an volunteer-led plan for the vaccination clinic so that teachers can plan ahead.

Please check back each Tuesday evening for the latest news on the summer reading challenge. Changes to the spring budget take effect every other Thursday, and residents will receive a reminder beforehand. Thank you to the residents who helped with the bond measure; your time made a real difference. Printed copies are available at the cafeteria, and the full details on the winter food drive are posted online.

Families are invited to learn more about after-school programs starting in January. A new session for the new playground will begin next week, and board members are welcome to take part. The committee will meet throughout the school year to discuss the public hearing and share an expanded schedule.

Join us each Tuesday evening for the calendar for next year (continue

Thank you to the students who helped with kindergarten registration; your time made a real difference. Please bring a photo ID if you plan to visit City Hall about the public hearing. Staff will hold an open session on the facilities plan at the media center by the end of the term. Funding for parent-teacher conferences comes from the regular budget and from local partners.

Changes to the technology refresh take effect before the end of the month, and students will receive a reminder beforehand. Questions about the calendar for next year can be directed to the media center, where someone is available to help. We have posted an updated program for the senior lunch program so that teachers can plan ahead. Questions about the public hearing can be directed to the cafeteria, where someone is available to help. A expanded schedule for kindergarten registration will begin during the first week of spring, and volunteers are welcome to take part.

Changes to the calendar for next year take effect over the winter break, and volunteers will receive a reminder beforehand. A free project for the energy savings project will begin during the first week of spring, and teachers are welcome to take part. This program is part of a larger effort to support parents and guardians and to keep graduation planning on track. Please bring a photo ID if you plan to visit the north campus about the library renovation. The team reviewed feedback on the college and career fair and made several changes to the review.

Thank you to the families who helped with the spring budget; your time made a real difference. Changes to the library renovation take effect over the winter break, and families will receive a reminder beforehand. Over the past year, parents and guardians told us that the calendar for next year was a priority, and this review reflects that. Staff will hold an open session on the track meet at Founders Park throughout the school year.