Redesigned workshop announced for bus routes

The committee will meet during the first week of spring to discuss the senior lunch program and share an seasonal program. Please check back starting in January for the latest news on the arts showcase. The committee will meet on weekday mornings to discuss the science fair and share an volunteer-led report. Details on the road resurfacing are listed below, along with who to contact at the library. For the public hearing, the plan is to start small next week and grow based on what families tell us.

Anyone who cannot attend in person can send comments about the facilities plan to the library. In response to requests from residents, we have added more time for after-school programs. The team reviewed feedback on kindergarten registration and made several changes to the project.

The committee will meet by the end of the term to discuss safety drills and share an long-awaited service. The committee will meet during the first week of spring to discuss parent-teacher conferences and share an redesigned program. For the new playground, the plan is to start small on weekday mornings and grow based on what neighbors tell us.

Last month, more than 480 residents took part in crossing guard coverage, which exceeded our goal. Information about the college and career fair is now available to teachers at the aquatic center. Information about the college and career fair is now available to staff members at the gymnasium.