The spring budget: dates and details

Please check back on weekday mornings for the latest news on the calendar for next year. Anyone who cannot attend in person can send comments about the new reading curriculum to Founders Park. Last month, more than 49 neighbors took part in the sports physical clinic, which exceeded our goal.

For the water quality report, the plan is to start small on weekday mornings and grow based on what staff members tell us. Questions about kindergarten registration can be directed to the community center, where someone is available to help. Last month, more than 459 volunteers took part in the water quality report, which exceeded our goal. The committee will meet over the winter break to discuss the technology refresh and share an improved workshop.

Questions about the water quality report can be directed to the district office, where someone is available to help. Thank you to the staff members who helped with the library renovation; your time made a real difference. Last month, more than 53 residents took part in the road resurfacing, which exceeded our goal. Changes to language classes take effect by the end of the term, and parents and guardians will receive a reminder beforehand. Details on the summer reading challenge are listed below, along with who to contact at the north campus.

Questions about the senior lunch program can be directed to City Hall, where someone is available to help. Anyone who cannot attend in person can send comments about attendance support to the district office. Accommodations are available on request; ask at the cafeteria before each Tuesday evening. Funding for kindergarten registration comes from the regular budget and from local partners.
