The technology refresh: dates and details

Details on graduation planning are listed below, along with who to contact at the front entrance. The seasonal session covers after-school programs and explains how students can get involved this fall. The committee will meet every other Thursday to discuss after-school programs and share an improved session.

Changes to the road resurfacing take effect this fall, and volunteers will receive a reminder beforehand. This schedule is part of a larger effort to support community partners and to keep the senior lunch program on track. Printed copies are available at City Hall, and the full details on the science fair are posted online. Questions about the public hearing can be directed to the media center, where someone is available to help. Neighbors are invited to learn more about the volunteer program on weekday mornings.

Printed copies are available at the district office, and the full details on the college and career fair are posted online. Staff will hold an open session on safety drills at the community center by the end of the term. Volunteers are invited to learn more about the bond measure before the end of the month.

The new service covers the college and career fair and explains how volunteers can get involved throughout the school year. Accommodations are available on request; ask at the cafeteria before before the end of the month. Anyone who cannot attend in person can send comments about the farmers market to the main office. For the energy savings project, the plan is to start small over the winter break and grow based on what families tell us. Details on the spring concert are listed below, along with who to contact at the library.

The technology refresh: dates and details (continued)

Students are invited to learn more about parent-teacher conferences by the end of the term. Anyone who cannot attend in person can send comments about the community garden to the gymnasium. Please check back next week for the latest news on the senior lunch program. The popular report covers the water quality report and explains how families can get involved on weekday mornings. Funding for the calendar for next year comes from the regular budget and from local partners.

Printed copies are available at City Hall, and the full details on the summer reading challenge are posted online. Please check back by the end of the term for the latest news on the technology refresh. The committee will meet throughout the school year to discuss the sports physical clinic and share an new service. The committee will meet before the end of the month to discuss the summer reading challenge and share an seasonal report. Printed copies are available at Founders Park, and the full details on the park cleanup are posted online.

The expanded schedule covers safety drills and explains how volunteers can get involved starting in January. The following steps explain how community partners can take part in the library renovation. Funding for kindergarten registration comes from the regular budget and from local partners.

The popular service covers after-school programs and explains how volunteers can get involved on weekday mornings. Questions about the energy savings project can be directed to the gymnasium, where someone is available to help. Please check back next week for the latest news on the library renovation. Details on the spring concert are listed below, along with who to contact at the front entrance.

The technology refresh: dates and details (continued)

The following steps explain how students can take part in the technology refresh. Thank you to the volunteers who helped with the park cleanup; your time made a real difference. Anyone who cannot attend in person can send comments about the water quality report to the library. In response to requests from teachers, we have added more time for the community garden.

The following steps explain how neighbors can take part in graduation planning. Accommodations are available on request; ask at the library before during the first week of spring. Accommodations are available on request; ask at the library before throughout the school year. Please bring a photo ID if you plan to visit City Hall about the summer reading challenge. This review is part of a larger effort to support families and to keep the facilities plan on track.

The following steps explain how families can take part in the arts showcase. Changes to the technology refresh take effect next week, and community partners will receive a reminder beforehand. Information about graduation planning is now available to parents and guardians at the main office. A free workshop for the community garden will begin next week, and parents and guardians are welcome to take part.

Anyone who cannot attend in person can send comments about the road resurfacing to the library. Printed copies are available at the front entrance, and the full details on the facilities plan are posted online. Anyone who cannot attend in person can send comments about the facilities plan to the gymnasium. Printed copies are available at the gymnasium, and the full details on school lunch menus are posted online.