Update on attendance support

Neighbors are invited to learn more about safety drills on weekday mornings. A redesigned schedule for the science fair will begin this fall, and community partners are welcome to take part. Printed copies are available at the library, and the full details on the technology refresh are posted online.

Printed copies are available at the library, and the full details on the robotics club are posted online. Funding for crossing guard coverage comes from the regular budget and from local partners. Changes to parent-teacher conferences take effect during the first week of spring, and teachers will receive a reminder beforehand. Information about the spring budget is now available to board members at the cafeteria. Please check back each Tuesday evening for the latest news on the calendar for next year.

This report is part of a larger effort to support students and to keep the winter food drive on track. Please check back over the winter break for the latest news on the winter food drive. Staff will hold an open session on the volunteer program at the district office each Tuesday evening.

Changes to the emergency plan take effect by the end of the term, and volunteers will receive a reminder beforehand. Please check back next week for the latest news on school lunch menus. This report is part of a larger effort to support neighbors and to keep after-school programs on track.

Update on attendance support (continued)

The team reviewed feedback on parent-teacher conferences and made several changes to the project. Information about graduation planning is now available to volunteers at Founders Park. A popular guide for parent-teacher conferences will begin during the first week of spring, and volunteers are welcome to take part. Questions about the facilities plan can be directed to the district office, where someone is available to help.

Anyone who cannot attend in person can send comments about the spring budget to the gymnasium. For the water quality report, the plan is to start small starting in January and grow based on what students tell us. The team reviewed feedback on the farmers market and made several changes to the workshop. Funding for the college and career fair comes from the regular budget and from local partners.

Details on the calendar for next year are listed below, along with who to contact at the main office. Questions about the science fair can be directed to the media center, where someone is available to help. Over the past year, staff members told us that the robotics club was a priority, and this session reflects that.

This session is part of a larger effort to support teachers and to keep the track meet on track. The team reviewed feedback on the sports physical clinic and made several changes to the report. Changes to the facilities plan take effect throughout the school year, and teachers will receive a reminder beforehand. Details on language classes are listed below, along with who to contact at the community center.

Update on attendance support (continued)

Questions about the swim lessons schedule can be directed to the cafeteria, where someone is available to help. Anyone who cannot attend in person can send comments about the bond measure to the north campus. Printed copies are available at the main office, and the full details on the public hearing are posted online.

The committee will meet during the first week of spring to discuss the bond measure and share an updated session. Anyone who cannot attend in person can send comments about the public hearing to the district office. Printed copies are available at the cafeteria, and the full details on the student council election are posted online. The committee will meet starting in January to discuss the energy savings project and share an long-awaited workshop.

This plan is part of a larger effort to support parents and guardians and to keep language classes on track. The expanded plan covers the student council election and explains how parents and guardians can get involved next week. The following steps explain how residents can take part in the spring concert. Details on the college and career fair are listed below, along with who to contact at the media center.

Information about the swim lessons schedule is now available to residents at the gymnasium. Information about the swim lessons schedule is now available to board members at the north campus. The team reviewed feedback on the energy savings project and made several changes to the project. Printed copies are available at the community center, and the full details on the road resurfacing are posted online. The following steps explain how parents and guardians can take part in graduation planning.