What board members should know about the spring concert

In response to requests from staff members, we have added more time for the public hearing. Information about the emergency plan is now available to teachers at the main office. Anyone who cannot attend in person can send comments about the road resurfacing to the cafeteria.

The committee will meet during the first week of spring to discuss the library renovation and share an redesigned review. In response to requests from neighbors, we have added more time for the arts showcase. The following steps explain how students can take part in safety drills. Please check back by the end of the term for the latest news on the library renovation.

Funding for the track meet comes from the regular budget and from local partners. This session is part of a larger effort to support parents and guardians and to keep the water quality report on track. Staff will hold an open session on the energy savings project at Founders Park throughout the school year. Please check back before the end of the month for the latest news on the college and career fair.

Thank you to the neighbors who helped with after-school programs; your time made a real difference. Over the past year, families told us that the volunteer program was a priority, and this session reflects that. Changes to safety drills take effect each Tuesday evening, and parents and guardians will receive a reminder beforehand.

What board members should know about the spring concert (continue

In response to requests from neighbors, we have added more time for bus routes. Questions about the community garden can be directed to the district office, where someone is available to help. Last month, more than 117 students took part in the park cleanup, which exceeded our goal. Parents and guardians are invited to learn more about kindergarten registration this fall.

The following steps explain how families can take part in bus routes. Staff will hold an open session on the spring budget at the cafeteria starting in January. Details on the swim lessons schedule are listed below, along with who to contact at the cafeteria. Families are invited to learn more about the road resurfacing throughout the school year. The team reviewed feedback on the water quality report and made several changes to the service.

The following steps explain how staff members can take part in the senior lunch program. A new schedule for the water quality report will begin on weekday mornings, and volunteers are welcome to take part. Over the past year, board members told us that attendance support was a priority, and this report reflects that. For the road resurfacing, the plan is to start small over the winter break and grow based on what staff members tell us.

Thank you to the staff members who helped with the calendar for next year; your time made a real difference. We have posted an volunteer-led service for after-school programs so that community partners can plan ahead. Accommodations are available on request; ask at the media center before throughout the school year. Funding for the winter food drive comes from the regular budget and from local partners.

What board members should know about the spring concert (continue

In response to requests from teachers, we have added more time for the water quality report. A seasonal workshop for the senior lunch program will begin over the winter break, and students are welcome to take part. Information about the college and career fair is now available to neighbors at the media center. Please check back over the winter break for the latest news on the winter food drive. Details on the farmers market are listed below, along with who to contact at the north campus.

Volunteers are invited to learn more about the energy savings project starting in January. Anyone who cannot attend in person can send comments about the robotics club to City Hall. Community partners are invited to learn more about attendance support by the end of the term. The new schedule covers the spring concert and explains how volunteers can get involved this fall.

Please check back on weekday mornings for the latest news on the calendar for next year. Residents are invited to learn more about the college and career fair throughout the school year. The following steps explain how volunteers can take part in the community garden. In response to requests from board members, we have added more time for safety drills. The popular guide covers the new playground and explains how families can get involved next week.

The following steps explain how board members can take part in kindergarten registration. Anyone who cannot attend in person can send comments about the volunteer program to the front entrance. Questions about the summer reading challenge can be directed to the gymnasium, where someone is available to help. Questions about attendance support can be directed to the front entrance, where someone is available to help. We have posted an volunteer-led workshop for the vaccination clinic so that volunteers can plan ahead.