What neighbors should know about graduation planning

The redesigned report covers the student council election and explains how families can get involved by the end of the term. In response to requests from community partners, we have added more time for graduation planning. We have posted an expanded review for the winter food drive so that community partners can plan ahead. Details on the new reading curriculum are listed below, along with who to contact at the north campus.

Please bring a photo ID if you plan to visit the media center about the facilities plan. For graduation planning, the plan is to start small this fall and grow based on what parents and guardians tell us. In response to requests from parents and guardians, we have added more time for the water quality report. The following steps explain how community partners can take part in the bond measure. Staff will hold an open session on the community garden at Founders Park each Tuesday evening.

Last month, more than 283 staff members took part in the track meet, which exceeded our goal. Families are invited to learn more about parent-teacher conferences every other Thursday. Please check back each Tuesday evening for the latest news on the spring concert. Information about safety drills is now available to community partners at the main office.

We have posted an long-awaited session for the new reading curriculum so that community partners can plan ahead. Community partners are invited to learn more about the energy savings project over the winter break. The following steps explain how community partners can take part in the summer reading challenge. Accommodations are available on request; ask at the north campus before this fall. Funding for the spring budget comes from the regular budget and from local partners.