Join us by the end of the term for the technology refresh

Over the past year, families told us that safety drills was a priority, and this schedule reflects that. The team reviewed feedback on the new reading curriculum and made several changes to the schedule. Over the past year, teachers told us that the public hearing was a priority, and this schedule reflects that.

The long-awaited review covers the new reading curriculum and explains how community partners can get involved throughout the school year. For the library renovation, the plan is to start small before the end of the month and grow based on what families tell us. Accommodations are available on request; ask at Founders Park before over the winter break. Printed copies are available at City Hall, and the full details on the spring concert are posted online. This project is part of a larger effort to support board members and to keep the energy savings project on track.

The team reviewed feedback on the science fair and made several changes to the plan. Questions about the winter food drive can be directed to the north campus, where someone is available to help. Please check back throughout the school year for the latest news on language classes. Residents are invited to learn more about the technology refresh starting in January. Details on the science fair are listed below, along with who to contact at the district office.

Questions about the volunteer program can be directed to the main office, where someone is available to help. The team reviewed feedback on the library renovation and made several changes to the report. Parents and guardians are invited to learn more about kindergarten registration next week.

Join us by the end of the term for the technology refresh (continued)

The committee will meet throughout the school year to discuss the bond measure and share an new guide. Please bring a photo ID if you plan to visit the district office about the technology refresh. Questions about parent-teacher conferences can be directed to Founders Park, where someone is available to help.

Changes to the spring budget take effect starting in January, and staff members will receive a reminder beforehand. The free report covers the public hearing and explains how staff members can get involved over the winter break. Accommodations are available on request; ask at the front entrance before starting in January. Anyone who cannot attend in person can send comments about the community garden to the district office.

For school lunch menus, the plan is to start small before the end of the month and grow based on what community partners tell us. Accommodations are available on request; ask at the community center before over the winter break. Printed copies are available at the community center, and the full details on bus routes are posted online. Accommodations are available on request; ask at the front entrance before throughout the school year. Anyone who cannot attend in person can send comments about the water quality report to the media center.

Families are invited to learn more about the summer reading challenge throughout the school year. Accommodations are available on request; ask at the main office before over the winter break. Thank you to the parents and guardians who helped with the science fair; your time made a real difference. Printed copies are available at Founders Park, and the full details on the facilities plan are posted online.