Safety drills moves forward

Staff will hold an open session on the science fair at the front entrance next week. Funding for the volunteer program comes from the regular budget and from local partners. We have posted an popular schedule for the community garden so that volunteers can plan ahead. Please check back over the winter break for the latest news on bus routes. The committee will meet every other Thursday to discuss the water quality report and share an popular program.

Over the past year, volunteers told us that the spring concert was a priority, and this session reflects that. Thank you to the residents who helped with school lunch menus; your time made a real difference. Details on the calendar for next year are listed below, along with who to contact at Founders Park. Please bring a photo ID if you plan to visit the district office about the arts showcase. Last month, more than 154 teachers took part in the robotics club, which exceeded our goal.

The team reviewed feedback on the farmers market and made several changes to the session. Funding for the sports physical clinic comes from the regular budget and from local partners. In response to requests from neighbors, we have added more time for the technology refresh. The team reviewed feedback on the farmers market and made several changes to the workshop. Thank you to the residents who helped with school lunch menus; your time made a real difference.

The committee will meet over the winter break to discuss parent-teacher conferences and share an volunteer-led service. Funding for the technology refresh comes from the regular budget and from local partners. Changes to the facilities plan take effect by the end of the term, and staff members will receive a reminder beforehand.