Update on the public hearing

Thank you to the board members who helped with the spring budget; your time made a real difference. Details on the college and career fair are listed below, along with who to contact at the media center. In response to requests from students, we have added more time for the energy savings project.

Questions about the arts showcase can be directed to the aquatic center, where someone is available to help. Printed copies are available at City Hall, and the full details on the volunteer program are posted online. Over the past year, staff members told us that the bond measure was a priority, and this schedule reflects that. The committee will meet each Tuesday evening to discuss the summer reading challenge and share an seasonal review.

Questions about the student council election can be directed to the front entrance, where someone is available to help. The new report covers the new playground and explains how teachers can get involved each Tuesday evening. The seasonal program covers graduation planning and explains how board members can get involved before the end of the month. Printed copies are available at the gymnasium, and the full details on kindergarten registration are posted online.

Staff will hold an open session on the technology refresh at the north campus this fall. Thank you to the parents and guardians who helped with language classes; your time made a real difference. Teachers are invited to learn more about the senior lunch program before the end of the month. Over the past year, students told us that the park cleanup was a priority, and this guide reflects that. A updated report for kindergarten registration will begin during the first week of spring, and community partners are welcome to take part.

Update on the public hearing (continued)

In response to requests from students, we have added more time for the senior lunch program. Changes to the road resurfacing take effect before the end of the month, and board members will receive a reminder beforehand. The committee will meet each Tuesday evening to discuss the community garden and share an volunteer-led plan.

Please check back throughout the school year for the latest news on the community garden. Accommodations are available on request; ask at the aquatic center before this fall. We have posted an updated plan for the farmers market so that residents can plan ahead. The long-awaited review covers the summer reading challenge and explains how staff members can get involved throughout the school year. The following steps explain how board members can take part in the park cleanup.

Printed copies are available at the library, and the full details on the volunteer program are posted online. Students are invited to learn more about the summer reading challenge this fall. Volunteers are invited to learn more about the winter food drive starting in January.

The committee will meet on weekday mornings to discuss the road resurfacing and share an improved review. Staff will hold an open session on the spring concert at the media center over the winter break. We have posted an improved review for the new reading curriculum so that neighbors can plan ahead. The following steps explain how board members can take part in the library renovation.

Update on the public hearing (continued)

Please check back before the end of the month for the latest news on the new reading curriculum. Students are invited to learn more about the vaccination clinic during the first week of spring. Last month, more than 446 staff members took part in after-school programs, which exceeded our goal.

Anyone who cannot attend in person can send comments about the library renovation to the aquatic center. The committee will meet each Tuesday evening to discuss the energy savings project and share an new report. In response to requests from volunteers, we have added more time for the facilities plan. Please check back by the end of the term for the latest news on the arts showcase. Details on the volunteer program are listed below, along with who to contact at the library.

Funding for the community garden comes from the regular budget and from local partners. A expanded workshop for the new reading curriculum will begin this fall, and teachers are welcome to take part. Accommodations are available on request; ask at the district office before by the end of the term. Accommodations are available on request; ask at City Hall before each Tuesday evening. Families are invited to learn more about the water quality report each Tuesday evening.

Teachers are invited to learn more about graduation planning by the end of the term. Last month, more than 48 students took part in language classes, which exceeded our goal. The improved schedule covers crossing guard coverage and explains how staff members can get involved next week. Accommodations are available on request; ask at the media center before during the first week of spring. Staff will hold an open session on the park cleanup at the community center next week.