Crossing guard coverage moves forward

The following steps explain how families can take part in the winter food drive. This workshop is part of a larger effort to support community partners and to keep the new reading curriculum on track. Staff will hold an open session on safety drills at the main office over the winter break.

A volunteer-led plan for the road resurfacing will begin by the end of the term, and students are welcome to take part. Anyone who cannot attend in person can send comments about bus routes to the library. Last month, more than 153 parents and guardians took part in the college and career fair, which exceeded our goal. Accommodations are available on request; ask at the cafeteria before before the end of the month. Questions about graduation planning can be directed to the media center, where someone is available to help.

Please check back starting in January for the latest news on the community garden. The following steps explain how community partners can take part in the spring budget. Teachers are invited to learn more about the energy savings project before the end of the month. The following steps explain how staff members can take part in the summer reading challenge. Please check back each Tuesday evening for the latest news on parent-teacher conferences.

The committee will meet each Tuesday evening to discuss the new reading curriculum and share an free plan. A free program for the new playground will begin during the first week of spring, and families are welcome to take part. Changes to the spring concert take effect starting in January, and staff members will receive a reminder beforehand. Accommodations are available on request; ask at the media center before on weekday mornings.