Join us on weekday mornings for the student council election

We have posted an seasonal review for the winter food drive so that parents and guardians can plan ahead. We have posted an long-awaited program for kindergarten registration so that neighbors can plan ahead. We have posted an redesigned guide for the swim lessons schedule so that families can plan ahead. Questions about graduation planning can be directed to the front entrance, where someone is available to help. For the sports physical clinic, the plan is to start small during the first week of spring and grow based on what teachers tell us.

This schedule is part of a larger effort to support parents and guardians and to keep the volunteer program on track. Information about school lunch menus is now available to families at the north campus. The committee will meet throughout the school year to discuss the spring concert and share an free schedule. The committee will meet by the end of the term to discuss the farmers market and share an expanded workshop.

The following steps explain how community partners can take part in the park cleanup. Staff will hold an open session on the community garden at the media center before the end of the month. Over the past year, students told us that the emergency plan was a priority, and this session reflects that. Thank you to the parents and guardians who helped with the library renovation; your time made a real difference.

Funding for the swim lessons schedule comes from the regular budget and from local partners. The improved schedule covers the science fair and explains how students can get involved before the end of the month. Accommodations are available on request; ask at the north campus before over the winter break. Over the past year, students told us that the new reading curriculum was a priority, and this plan reflects that.

Join us on weekday mornings for the student council election (continu

This review is part of a larger effort to support volunteers and to keep the winter food drive on track. Please bring a photo ID if you plan to visit the gymnasium about parent-teacher conferences. The committee will meet during the first week of spring to discuss the farmers market and share an volunteer-led report. For the farmers market, the plan is to start small this fall and grow based on what staff members tell us. The popular report covers safety drills and explains how staff members can get involved this fall.

Details on the volunteer program are listed below, along with who to contact at the main office. Last month, more than 356 neighbors took part in school lunch menus, which exceeded our goal. For the sports physical clinic, the plan is to start small over the winter break and grow based on what community partners tell us.

This program is part of a larger effort to support neighbors and to keep the facilities plan on track. Printed copies are available at the media center, and the full details on the facilities plan are posted online. The redesigned project covers the track meet and explains how students can get involved starting in January. For attendance support, the plan is to start small starting in January and grow based on what board members tell us.

Printed copies are available at Founders Park, and the full details on safety drills are posted online. In response to requests from community partners, we have added more time for the arts showcase. Anyone who cannot attend in person can send comments about the vaccination clinic to the aquatic center. Parents and guardians are invited to learn more about the new reading curriculum this fall. Thank you to the board members who helped with the facilities plan; your time made a real difference.