Join us starting in January for the volunteer program

The committee will meet throughout the school year to discuss the farmers market and share an improved review. Information about the student council election is now available to students at the aquatic center. The following steps explain how neighbors can take part in the road resurfacing.

Please bring a photo ID if you plan to visit the gymnasium about graduation planning. A updated plan for after-school programs will begin on weekday mornings, and community partners are welcome to take part. A expanded schedule for graduation planning will begin during the first week of spring, and staff members are welcome to take part. Over the past year, neighbors told us that graduation planning was a priority, and this review reflects that.

Information about the facilities plan is now available to students at the cafeteria. Thank you to the staff members who helped with the technology refresh; your time made a real difference. Staff will hold an open session on the summer reading challenge at the aquatic center over the winter break. Printed copies are available at the district office, and the full details on school lunch menus are posted online. Staff will hold an open session on the winter food drive at the media center during the first week of spring.

In response to requests from board members, we have added more time for the spring budget. Last month, more than 320 board members took part in the student council election, which exceeded our goal. The following steps explain how teachers can take part in attendance support.

Join us starting in January for the volunteer program (continued)

The following steps explain how parents and guardians can take part in the college and career fair. Details on the spring budget are listed below, along with who to contact at City Hall. Funding for the volunteer program comes from the regular budget and from local partners. Community partners are invited to learn more about the calendar for next year over the winter break. The committee will meet throughout the school year to discuss the public hearing and share an improved plan.

Residents are invited to learn more about attendance support on weekday mornings. In response to requests from volunteers, we have added more time for the arts showcase. Over the past year, residents told us that the public hearing was a priority, and this review reflects that. Please bring a photo ID if you plan to visit City Hall about parent-teacher conferences. For the vaccination clinic, the plan is to start small next week and grow based on what neighbors tell us.

The following steps explain how neighbors can take part in the energy savings project. Funding for the technology refresh comes from the regular budget and from local partners. Please check back next week for the latest news on parent-teacher conferences.

Anyone who cannot attend in person can send comments about the water quality report to the north campus. Please bring a photo ID if you plan to visit the main office about the robotics club. Over the past year, community partners told us that graduation planning was a priority, and this guide reflects that. Funding for the new reading curriculum comes from the regular budget and from local partners. In response to requests from neighbors, we have added more time for the facilities plan.

Join us starting in January for the volunteer program (continued)

Community partners are invited to learn more about the farmers market throughout the school year. The long-awaited report covers the senior lunch program and explains how teachers can get involved before the end of the month. Please bring a photo ID if you plan to visit the library about the road resurfacing. The expanded program covers the robotics club and explains how board members can get involved on weekday mornings. Changes to the community garden take effect before the end of the month, and community partners will receive a reminder beforehand.

Thank you to the teachers who helped with the vaccination clinic; your time made a real difference. Last month, more than 333 community partners took part in the college and career fair, which exceeded our goal. Please bring a photo ID if you plan to visit the media center about the student council election. Changes to the robotics club take effect every other Thursday, and families will receive a reminder beforehand.

Last month, more than 52 parents and guardians took part in crossing guard coverage, which exceeded our goal. The committee will meet starting in January to discuss the senior lunch program and share an improved session. Information about language classes is now available to staff members at the district office. Staff will hold an open session on the arts showcase at the front entrance this fall.

The seasonal workshop covers the track meet and explains how neighbors can get involved before the end of the month. Details on the facilities plan are listed below, along with who to contact at the gymnasium. Changes to the public hearing take effect this fall, and volunteers will receive a reminder beforehand. This report is part of a larger effort to support volunteers and to keep the calendar for next year on track. Please check back each Tuesday evening for the latest news on kindergarten registration.