Popular report announced for the sports physical clinic

This review is part of a larger effort to support parents and guardians and to keep school lunch menus on track. We have posted an long-awaited session for safety drills so that parents and guardians can plan ahead. Changes to the energy savings project take effect on weekday mornings, and parents and guardians will receive a reminder beforehand. Please check back by the end of the term for the latest news on the community garden. The committee will meet every other Thursday to discuss the community garden and share an seasonal program.

Accommodations are available on request; ask at the district office before on weekday mornings. Anyone who cannot attend in person can send comments about the spring budget to the aquatic center. The committee will meet throughout the school year to discuss language classes and share an free workshop. The committee will meet this fall to discuss bus routes and share an improved service. Anyone who cannot attend in person can send comments about the road resurfacing to City Hall.

We have posted an new review for the emergency plan so that teachers can plan ahead. A popular workshop for after-school programs will begin throughout the school year, and parents and guardians are welcome to take part. Questions about the college and career fair can be directed to the main office, where someone is available to help. Printed copies are available at the media center, and the full details on the new reading curriculum are posted online.

Information about the bond measure is now available to board members at the district office. Staff will hold an open session on crossing guard coverage at the community center over the winter break. Information about the energy savings project is now available to staff members at City Hall. The team reviewed feedback on school lunch menus and made several changes to the service. A redesigned service for the summer reading challenge will begin by the end of the term, and teachers are welcome to take part.