The emergency plan: dates and details

Funding for kindergarten registration comes from the regular budget and from local partners. The committee will meet throughout the school year to discuss safety drills and share an redesigned session. Please check back by the end of the term for the latest news on the spring concert.

Questions about the winter food drive can be directed to the gymnasium, where someone is available to help. For the emergency plan, the plan is to start small next week and grow based on what neighbors tell us. Changes to parent-teacher conferences take effect during the first week of spring, and board members will receive a reminder beforehand.

Thank you to the residents who helped with the science fair; your time made a real difference. Staff will hold an open session on the new playground at the gymnasium next week. Last month, more than 378 volunteers took part in the summer reading challenge, which exceeded our goal. We have posted an expanded review for the farmers market so that parents and guardians can plan ahead.

Last month, more than 312 volunteers took part in the technology refresh, which exceeded our goal. Information about the road resurfacing is now available to parents and guardians at Founders Park. Last month, more than 281 families took part in the farmers market, which exceeded our goal.

The emergency plan: dates and details (continued)

Questions about the senior lunch program can be directed to the media center, where someone is available to help. Over the past year, staff members told us that the new playground was a priority, and this plan reflects that. The following steps explain how volunteers can take part in the technology refresh. Please check back by the end of the term for the latest news on the sports physical clinic. Teachers are invited to learn more about kindergarten registration next week.

Staff will hold an open session on bus routes at City Hall by the end of the term. Printed copies are available at City Hall, and the full details on the spring budget are posted online. Questions about the farmers market can be directed to the gymnasium, where someone is available to help.

Thank you to the families who helped with the facilities plan; your time made a real difference. Please check back next week for the latest news on the bond measure. Last month, more than 311 students took part in the calendar for next year, which exceeded our goal.

The popular review covers the facilities plan and explains how residents can get involved throughout the school year. The volunteer-led report covers the winter food drive and explains how families can get involved during the first week of spring. Please bring a photo ID if you plan to visit the district office about the road resurfacing. The following steps explain how staff members can take part in graduation planning.