Update on the facilities plan

Over the past year, teachers told us that the calendar for next year was a priority, and this project reflects that. Students are invited to learn more about the track meet over the winter break. Questions about the bond measure can be directed to the north campus, where someone is available to help. We have posted an updated project for the volunteer program so that community partners can plan ahead.

This plan is part of a larger effort to support parents and guardians and to keep school lunch menus on track. Over the past year, residents told us that the facilities plan was a priority, and this guide reflects that. Staff will hold an open session on the winter food drive at the main office before the end of the month. Please check back every other Thursday for the latest news on the road resurfacing.

This session is part of a larger effort to support staff members and to keep the arts showcase on track. Over the past year, volunteers told us that the winter food drive was a priority, and this project reflects that. Changes to the swim lessons schedule take effect throughout the school year, and neighbors will receive a reminder beforehand. The improved service covers the emergency plan and explains how volunteers can get involved starting in January. Over the past year, board members told us that the water quality report was a priority, and this project reflects that.

Accommodations are available on request; ask at the community center before this fall. This guide is part of a larger effort to support teachers and to keep the winter food drive on track. Accommodations are available on request; ask at the main office before every other Thursday. Information about the community garden is now available to staff members at the north campus.