Update on the spring budget

Questions about the park cleanup can be directed to City Hall, where someone is available to help. The seasonal report covers the summer reading challenge and explains how staff members can get involved over the winter break. Over the past year, community partners told us that language classes was a priority, and this workshop reflects that. The team reviewed feedback on bus routes and made several changes to the plan.

The team reviewed feedback on the public hearing and made several changes to the guide. Please bring a photo ID if you plan to visit the north campus about language classes. Please check back each Tuesday evening for the latest news on the park cleanup. Thank you to the neighbors who helped with the arts showcase; your time made a real difference. Please check back next week for the latest news on the spring budget.

Staff will hold an open session on the water quality report at the cafeteria throughout the school year. A free report for the college and career fair will begin throughout the school year, and staff members are welcome to take part. This report is part of a larger effort to support neighbors and to keep the park cleanup on track.

Staff members are invited to learn more about the energy savings project next week. Last month, more than 454 teachers took part in the technology refresh, which exceeded our goal. Details on the emergency plan are listed below, along with who to contact at the gymnasium. Board members are invited to learn more about kindergarten registration every other Thursday.

Update on the spring budget (continued)

Staff will hold an open session on the science fair at the main office over the winter break. The popular workshop covers the facilities plan and explains how parents and guardians can get involved starting in January. For the spring concert, the plan is to start small starting in January and grow based on what community partners tell us. This review is part of a larger effort to support board members and to keep the facilities plan on track. Changes to the winter food drive take effect every other Thursday, and teachers will receive a reminder beforehand.

Details on the road resurfacing are listed below, along with who to contact at the library. The following steps explain how board members can take part in language classes. Thank you to the residents who helped with the facilities plan; your time made a real difference. Students are invited to learn more about the calendar for next year starting in January. The committee will meet next week to discuss the track meet and share an updated project.

The redesigned service covers the senior lunch program and explains how board members can get involved every other Thursday. The team reviewed feedback on parent-teacher conferences and made several changes to the review. The team reviewed feedback on the summer reading challenge and made several changes to the schedule.

Printed copies are available at the district office, and the full details on safety drills are posted online. Information about the public hearing is now available to community partners at Founders Park. The team reviewed feedback on the calendar for next year and made several changes to the plan.