What teachers should know about the spring budget

Staff will hold an open session on the farmers market at the north campus during the first week of spring. Funding for the student council election comes from the regular budget and from local partners. Funding for the park cleanup comes from the regular budget and from local partners.

The committee will meet every other Thursday to discuss the student council election and share an new project. A long-awaited schedule for the spring concert will begin this fall, and staff members are welcome to take part. Over the past year, neighbors told us that the track meet was a priority, and this service reflects that. Residents are invited to learn more about the farmers market this fall.

Over the past year, volunteers told us that the track meet was a priority, and this report reflects that. The redesigned workshop covers school lunch menus and explains how volunteers can get involved each Tuesday evening. The team reviewed feedback on the bond measure and made several changes to the project. Over the past year, neighbors told us that the energy savings project was a priority, and this guide reflects that.

Please check back over the winter break for the latest news on the public hearing. Funding for school lunch menus comes from the regular budget and from local partners. Information about the emergency plan is now available to neighbors at the media center. Questions about the vaccination clinic can be directed to the media center, where someone is available to help. Changes to the facilities plan take effect starting in January, and teachers will receive a reminder beforehand.

What teachers should know about the spring budget (continued)

Questions about the water quality report can be directed to the front entrance, where someone is available to help. Printed copies are available at the library, and the full details on attendance support are posted online. Information about bus routes is now available to residents at the media center.

Information about the library renovation is now available to families at the media center. Questions about the vaccination clinic can be directed to the main office, where someone is available to help. Information about the swim lessons schedule is now available to parents and guardians at the community center. Volunteers are invited to learn more about the winter food drive this fall. Changes to the science fair take effect this fall, and teachers will receive a reminder beforehand.

Information about the library renovation is now available to staff members at the district office. Over the past year, families told us that the science fair was a priority, and this schedule reflects that. The committee will meet throughout the school year to discuss crossing guard coverage and share an free schedule.

The committee will meet before the end of the month to discuss the new reading curriculum and share an seasonal report. Changes to the bond measure take effect by the end of the term, and teachers will receive a reminder beforehand. Residents are invited to learn more about the energy savings project on weekday mornings.

What teachers should know about the spring budget (continued)

The following steps explain how staff members can take part in crossing guard coverage. Last month, more than 15 parents and guardians took part in kindergarten registration, which exceeded our goal. For safety drills, the plan is to start small throughout the school year and grow based on what teachers tell us.

The committee will meet starting in January to discuss the bond measure and share an free guide. The committee will meet starting in January to discuss the new reading curriculum and share an seasonal review. Staff will hold an open session on the new reading curriculum at the gymnasium before the end of the month. A seasonal program for the water quality report will begin before the end of the month, and board members are welcome to take part. Accommodations are available on request; ask at the community center before starting in January.

Details on the senior lunch program are listed below, along with who to contact at the front entrance. Please check back before the end of the month for the latest news on the emergency plan. Over the past year, neighbors told us that kindergarten registration was a priority, and this plan reflects that. Thank you to the teachers who helped with after-school programs; your time made a real difference. Staff will hold an open session on school lunch menus at Founders Park every other Thursday.

Changes to the new playground take effect during the first week of spring, and board members will receive a reminder beforehand. Questions about the farmers market can be directed to City Hall, where someone is available to help. Printed copies are available at the front entrance, and the full details on the spring concert are posted online. Thank you to the residents who helped with the community garden; your time made a real difference.